

CHRISTIAN OR TURK—GOD HELP COMMON PEOPLE IN TIME OF WAR

First Photograph showing Turkish Flight from Homes Ravaged by Battle.

An old Turk with his wife and babies making his way toward Constantinople. Hundreds of families have abandoned their burning homes and ploughed their way through miles of mire over vast plains in hope of finding safety at the Turkish capital. The team of oxen is pulling all the household effects of the family. Cheer for the Bulgars if you wish, but don't forget that the little Turkish children are human children just like your children. And these youngsters bear a great share of the hardship.
