

Evanston amateur aviator, were stopped by wind and police.

John Kohout, 1503 W. 17th st., fatally injured in fall from porch.

Policemen and matrons at Harrison st. bought turkey dinner for eight women prisoners.

Judge Hugh R. Stewart says motorcycles and automobiles are dangerous weapons.

Two sons of Emilio De Stefano, whose bank failed 16 years ago today, will settle in full with depositors.

George A. Kilby, superintendent Chicago Industrial Association, gave dinner to 300 hobos at Popular Hall, 806 South State st.

Marvin Hurley Pilot, five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pilot, 4718 Racine av., has never cried.

Thanksgiving dance of B'Nai Abraham Anailians at Hotel Sherman attended by 700.

Herman DeGrofski, 6, 1254 S. Troy st., killed by car at State and 57th sts.

William "Sunny" Dunne, bandit and escaped convict, is recovering from shot wound received when trying to hold up saloon.

Gustave Wagner, 425 N. 50th ct., and Joseph Moran, 2528 N. Artesian av., on motorcycle. Hit car. Seriously injured.

David White, 23 W. Kinzie st., struck by auto of D. Mark Cummings, 845 Lincoln Parkway. Police station. Not badly hurt.

Sarah Bernhardt to act as bridesmaid when Edward Sullivan, her former manager, marries Beatrice Pliss of St. Paul.

Patrolman Wm. Weller, 1220

Independence blvd., sprained ankle in fall at 940 S. Halsted st.

Mrs. Marion W. Corns tried suicide because husband died and children were kidnapped by first husband, Chas. L. Lucas. Sore because she'll recover.

Auto thieves stole furs worth $1,100 from store of Mrs. Gertrude Meyers, Harvester Bldg.

Martin Puez, 7329 St. Lawrence av., shot self and wife yesterday. Both dying.

Leroy Patterson, 9, 3037 George st., mixed flashlight powder and hot ashes. He'll live.

Edward Spere, boy with "good" face, "rubed" Capt. John J. Halpin out of $150 by bogus check. Caught in Bridewell. Sent to Pontiac.

A large, lively crowd attended a Thanksgiving entertainment and dance given at McCormick's Hall last evening by the Phi Alpha Zetas.

Roy Terry, 2707 W. Madison st., stole auto. Dying of it in Cook county hospital.

Jerry H. Moore, 17, South Carolina, world's champion corn raiser, big attraction at Land Show today.

Police investigating death of Mrs. Sophia Wilson, 26, 4734 N. Spaulding av., at Evangelical Deaconesses hospital. Rumor of illegal operation.

George T. Davis, 1735 W. Harrison st., found unconscious at S. Hermitage and W. Harrison st. Skull fractured. Robbers.

Peter Beckey, St. Paul broker, arrested for speeding.

Restaurant of Theodore Lures,