

Turner, saying man has right to kill man who hugs wife.

Detroit.—Governor Osborne paroled Herman Swift for 10 days that he may visit sick wife in Chicago before he starts on 5-year jail sentence.

Cincinnati.—Mollie Quinn, super in "Kismet," has sued Otis Skinner for $5,000. Claims he pinched her arm during play.

New York.—Alla Nazimova, Russian actress, married to Chas. E. Bryant, her leading man.

Duluth, Minn.—Steamer Easton, Booth Line, stranded on Iroquois reef, 30 miles west of Port Arthur. 50 persons in danger.

Glasgow, Scotland.—Hundreds of Glasgow university students wrecked headquarters of Women's Social and Political Union.

Washington.—James B. Forgan, Chicago, is one of several bankers selected to aid House subcommittee in framing new currency plan.

Princeton, N. J.—Princeton faculty adopted resolutions congratulating President-elect Wilson.

Washington.—Senate court of impeachment resumed case of Judge Archbald.

Hamilton, Bermuda.—President-elect Wilson intimated he would listen to Bryan's advice.

Evansville, Ind.—A. R. Lukens, wealthy merchant, suicide. Poison.

Price, Utah.—Milburn and Clarence Allreed, prisoners, burned to death in fire that destroyed city jail.

Ottawa, Ont.—Premier Borden

wants $35,000,000 for Canadian Dreadnoughts.

New York.—J. Pierpont Morgan reported ill.

London.—Insurance companies granting policies against birth of twins.

London.—Russian Poland ready to revolt.

Washington.—Local society, women bar cigarettes.

Milwaukee.—National Civil Service Reform League opened meeting.

Washington.—Secretary of Navy VonMeyer wants more ships.

Washington.—Champ Clark and Oscar Underwood may help Chicago harbor.

Washington.—Rep. Palmer, Pennsylvania, denounced White-law Reid for attack on Jefferson.

Chambersburg, Pa.—Champ Clark denies he drinks.

New York.—C. B. MacDonald, Chicago, sold seat on Stock Exchange.

New York.—Abe Erlanger admitted wife got divorce in 1911 on account of chours girl.

London.—Bank of England lost empty boxes from which $1,000,000 gold was stolen.

Washington.—House passed bill providing for inquiry into railway property value.

Washington.—Democratic House will start early on tariff legislation.

London.—Czarevitch of Russia has no trace of consumption.

Minneapolis.—Heavy snow delayed all trains.

Washington.—House took up