

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Macon, Ga.—Mrs. James King confessed she offered to pay Nicholas Wilburn, a young farmer, $2,000 and marry him if he would kill her husband. Both are charged with murder. Families of those implicated prominent in this section of Georgia.

Boston.—R. B. Davis, boy broker now serving 5 years at Deer Island for embezzlement of thousands of dollars, will not get pardon from present governor's council.

Rock Island, Ill.—G. W. Griffith and wife found dead with bullet wounds on body. Believed he shot her then killed self.

St. Paul.—42 more marriage licenses issued up to noon today than whole year of 1911. 2,749 in 1911, and 2,794 so far this year. 'Twas Leap Year.

Washington.—Postmaster General Hitchcock and all his assistants today received present made of leather burnt to represent a mail pouch; on its reverse side is verse to Uncle Sam's postal workers. Came from Miss Daisy Higgins, Omaha, Neb.

Joliet, Ill.—George Clark, convicted con man, can not be found. Forfeited $1,000 bond.

Washington.—W. J. Bryan's editorial declaration against seniority rule in senate discussed with interest at capitol today.

Auckland.—Message from British New Guinea said that Lemna natives on the Island of Papua had massacred entire population of the village.

Paris.—The Temps published story that Prince Ahmed Fuan, uncle of Khedive of Egypt, is preparing to invade Albania at head of 20,000 soldiers and claim throne of that country.

Little Falls, N. Y.—Cumulative evidence showing reduction of the striking mill workers' already low wages at state board of mediation's first public hearing.

Macon, Ga.—Mrs. James King, widow of Round Oak, Ga., farmer killed Dec. 12, confessed that she and Nicholas Wilburn were responsible.

Washington.—House committee of treasury dep't expenditures will begin investigation of government deposits in national banks.

Racine, Wis.—Deputy Sheriff C. H. Thompson, Yorkville, killed by C. & M. & St. P. train.

Washington.—Nathaniel Green, negro, indicted for attacking white woman within 40 hours after crime was committed.

Gulfport, Miss.—All hope for missing Norwegian bark Sterna, which left here for Dio de Janeiro Aug. 28, with crew of 16 men, given up.

New York.—125,000 United Garment Workers will strike next week.

Austin, Tex.—Att'y Gen. Wickersham has sued Houston Oil Co. to recover 88,000 acres of pine timber and oil lands in East Texas and $1,000,000 damages.

Cincinnati.—3 persons seriously injured when street car left