

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. C. M. Jones, 81, resident of Hull House, died there. Buried today.

H. A. Muessler, employed at 56-62 W. Illinois st., attacked by unknown man. Assailant used blackjack. Mueseler used fist. Man escaped.

Bldg. Commissioner H. Ericson says he will not let owner rebuild the Home Theater on Milwaukee av., which fell some time ago.

Otto Schucher, 22, 1310 Wells st., beat his mother. Arrested. Mother thought him kidnapped and reported to police. Detectives spent whole day looking for him. Then found him in their own station.

James Pisko, 624 Miller st., attacked and severely bruised by Daniel Napoleon, 624 S. Marshfield av.

A. D. Norton, "Shorty," 158 W. Huron st., employed at "Oyster Bay" of J. J. O'Conner, 367 W. Madison st., found pearl in clam  $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch in diameter and  $\frac{3}{8}$ -inch thick. Valued between \$400 and \$500.

Henry Bullard, 3716 Wabash av., hit wife with beer bottle. She smashed him with boxing glove straight from the shoulder. Both fined $3 and costs.

Mayor Carter Harrison recovering from his attack of grip.

"Masonic" Fraternity Temple Ass'n, owners of Masonic Temple, to apply for new charter to protect its ownership of bldg. against attacks by state.

Police think that H. H. Miller, night mnkr. of Home Restaurant, 1133 W. Chicago av., prepared "Black Hand" letter to deceive them, then robbed the place of money, cigars and silver. Will be questioned.

M. Adams, consul here for Siam, and F. A. Bostwick, started today on 6 months' tour of South America.

King Wilson, negro, 2220 S. State st., arrested, charged with attempted robbery, disorderly conduct and impersonating an officer. Fined $100 and costs.

Ed Broult, 2449 W. 39th st., killed when banister broke, throwing him to ground.

Lincoln Park has been opened for skaters. Ice reported safe.

J. O. Gorman, 1013 11th st., teamster, killed. Horse ran away.

James O'Leary, gambler and politician, arrested, charged with operating handbook on election, discharged for want of evidence.

John Nroda, Hammond, Ind., killed self in saloon, 569 W. 12th st. Gun.

C. J. McGuire, 25 S. Homan av., severely hurt when thrown from buggy.

Fred Schneider, street cleaner, found $5,000 worth of diamonds in dirt in street. Returned 'em to Mrs. S. Lederer, 1010 Milwaukee av., the owner. $200 reward.

Jake Guedel, 43, ironworker, 2622 Orchard st., severely bruised when beam fell on him.

J. W. Johnson, 160 W. North av., arrested as he was leaving