WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

Miss Agnes E. Yell, 537 N. Albany av., wants police to find purse containing small amount of money and trinkets which she left on counter at Hillman's Dept. store Saturday.

Ponane Hakoneriski, 1218 Hastings st., killed by Pennsylvania Ry. freight train.

Samuel Costello, 823 W. Polk st., stabbed in neck during fight with 2 men in saloon at 22 S. Halsted st. Hospital. Refused to talk.

Robbers in cigar store of G. R. Gifford, 34 N. Clark st. Got $100 worth of cigars and pipes.

Adolph Anderson, 42, 430 N. Drake st., bitten by dog of J. King, 723 Drake st. Dog arrested. Anderson in hospital.

Mrs. Doreita Plowmann, 36, found dead in bathroom of her apartment in Eastwood hotel, 4644 Sheridan road. Heart disease.

Grocery store of Pedro Silvestri, 1342 Larrabee st., made target for bomb thrown by "black hand" gang. Six persons injured. Windows shattered, front of building wrecked and occupants of rooms above store thrown from bed. No arrests.

Police asked to search for Louise Griesman, 12, 2005 Washburne av., who has been missing from her home since Monday morning.

Thief in Desplaines street police station courtroom got package of bills amounting to $100 from the desk of John Henry, chief clerk.

Wm. McCullough, 3534 Lexington st., arrested for driving auto while drunk. Discharged. Lack of evidence.

Harry Bowers, assistant ambulance physician at South Clark street station, fell asleep in the hospital there. Woke up and found watch gone.

Typhoid fever broke out in Evanston. Investigation lead to dairy of Matt Brosius. His four children had disease. He hid the cows at brother's home. Brother arrested for peddling milk without license. Not decided what to do with the cows.

Paul Selby, 88, veteran Illinois editor, seriously ill at River Forest with heart trouble.

Joseph Peterson, 3214 S. Halsted st., arrested. Charged with being pickpocket.

James Conway, pickpocket, arrested. Walked into trap police had set for him.

Capt. M. Kane appointed to succeed Henry Sims as deputy warden of state penitentiary at Joliet.

Two masked robbers entered home of Mrs. Elizabeth Sabellesser, 2037 Archer av., an aged crippled widow. Beat and tortured her almost to death in attempt to get her money. They got nothing. She's in serious condition.

One million women, members of General Federation of Women's Clubs, to start a nation-wide campaign today to secure the retention of Miss Julia O. Lathrop of this city as chief of Children's Bureau in Washington.

Carl Schultz, 80, janitor, 2202 Larabee st., suicide. Despondent over death of wife six months ago.

Two cases of diphtheria placed under quarantine at Elgin State Hospital. Both women.

Ed McKinley, 14, 468 W. 28th st., missing since Friday, has been found in Denver. Said he was kidnapped by a negro and taken to Denver, where he escaped while in a restaurant.

George Hall, insurance agent, arrested, charged with stealing a suit case from E. N. Getzler, New York.

Wm. Becker, 80 and wife Fredericka, 72, 3723 Armour av., found unconscious in their home. Gas. Revived. Accidental.

Man grabbed bank containing $4 from A. Jones, 13, 6424 Grove av.

Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, wife of Northwestern University "prof," and chaperon of a fraternity dance, quit