

"GOD KNOWS I HOPE SOME DAY TO LOVE A MAN," SAYS ACTRESS MARY GARDEN

Mary Garden.

San Francisco, March 29.—Mary Garden was eating grapes and baiting reporters with smiles and shrugs.

"What did I tell them?" she repeated after they had departed.

"Piffle," replied the star. "Just the usual interview stuff. They ask me such insane questions: 'Do I like hobble skirts?' for example. 'Of course I say I don't, and they go off and write reams about how Mary Garden hates hobble skirts. Why shouldn't any sane person hate them?'"
