

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Chartres, France.—Aviator Frangiers established new air record when he remained up over an hour at altitude of 2,300 feet, carrying six passengers, in biplane.

Galesburg, Ill.—Armors' Bank at North Henderson blown up. Reported larger parts of funds secured by robbers who escaped.

Montpelier, O.—For second time in six months yeggs blew postoffice safe at Edon. Escaped with $100 stamps.

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Mary Kulasa slashed throats of her two children, Agnes, 3 months, and Blanche, 22 months. Believed insane.

Paterson, N. J.—Twenty-five silk mill strikers arrested today following disturbance in front of Dougherty & Washburn mill by crowd of 500 men and women. Only men were arrested. Strikers sought to prevent workers entering mill.

Lead, S. D.—After 2,000 people searched all day and night, Katie Zarga was found sleeping in Victoria Mining Company mill. She had wandered 12 miles.

Richmond, Cal.—Charles Erickson, charged with having beaten wife to death, refuses to make statement or comment on arrest.

Minneapolis.—Henry Beck, 22, shot wife and baby and committed suicide. Despondency. Woman only slightly injured. Baby may die.

Joliet, Ill.—Fourth body, that of a man, taken from Desplaines river in last four days. None identified.

Pittsburgh.—Mrs. Ceceina Fantexzo confessed that her sweetheart and another man killed her husband while she looked on.

Kenosha, Wis.—Police mystified over disappearance of Mrs. Louise Tostopal of Chicago and her two children.

Minneapolis, Minn.—John O'Drosky, a wild man, arrested, entirely nude in railroad station at Crystal Bay after he had terrorized a dozen women.

Weston, W. Va.—Robert Brinklay, 10, while tending father's cows, discovered bridge on fire. Ran half mile and flagged passenger train.

Corfu.—British steamer Leitrim, bound for Constantinople, ran ashore and went to pieces. Crew all saved but one.

Des Moines, Ia.—Earl C. Lindsay, Colfax, aviator, sentenced for life in Fort Madison penitentiary, gained postponement of rehearing in order to fill $5,000 flying contract for support of family.

Indianapolis.—Local pugilists will give boxing exhibition tonight for benefit of Hamilton, O., flood sufferers.

St. Louis, Mo.—Men employees of Bell Telephone Co. began preparations for strike to force company to recognize union.

Paris.—Police/precautions doubled to prevent demonstration against King Alfonso of Spain, guest for three days of President Poincare.

Wilmington, Del.—5,000 Odd Fellows here to participate in dedication of new Odd Fellows' Temple.

Springfield, Ill.—Gov. Dunne urged legislature to appropriate $52,000 or as much as necessary for relief of flood sufferers in state.

Washington.—Mrs. Barney Hemmick predicts that in 2013 women will wear trousers and kissing will be a lost art.

Washington, D. C.—J. B. Gaskill, Chicago, appealed to Supreme Court for decision whether Chicago cemeteries are violating constitution in excluding negroes from burial.

Washington.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon's poker table sold for $16 when ex-speaker's household effects were disposed of.

WEATHER FORECAST

Unsettled weather with showers tonight or Friday for Chicago and vicinity; not much change in temperature; moderate variable winds.