

WHAT HAPPENED OUTSIDE CHICAGO

Denver.—Gov. Adams vetoed state income tax bill, bill repealing anti-boycott law and the boxing bill.

La Crosse, Wis.—Mrs. Mary Grahowski and Joseph Hudson, her confessed affinity, sentenced to one year in penitentiary.

Nashville, Tenn.—Steven Wright, Jr., 20, telephoned father of intention before he committed suicide. Father arrived at hotel too late.

Johannisthal.—Captain Zucker instantly killed, passenger named Dietrich badly injured when biplane collided with a monoplane at altitude of 60 feet.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Nelson Palm, 35, street car motorman, killed attempting to remove wire blown down in electric storm. 11 horses perished. Damage $35,000. Three stores also destroyed.

Tulsa, Okla.—Two masked youths escape with $2,500 taken from Turf Exchange while 200 people were in place.

Washington.—Interstate Commerce Commission placed blame on Engineer Weinberger for accident on Union Pacific Railroad at Gothemburg, Neb., March 14, resulting in four deaths and fourteen injured.

Elyria, O.—L. E. Jump, brakeman, killed, Carl Barnard, flagman, and W. C. Caltenbach, Dexter, brakemen, seriously hurt in Lake Shore railroad freight wreck.

St. Louis.—Frederick W. Humes, president Humes Flour Co., shot and killed self in lavatory of a Wabash train.

New York.—Harry K. Thaw arrived from Matteawan Asylum to appear as witness in trial of Atty. John N. Ashnut, charged with offer of bribe to release Thaw.

London.—Walter H. Page, new American ambassador, besieged by house owners desiring to have U. S. representative occupy their dwellings during stay in England.

Hammond, Ind.—Bessie Richardson suing for divorce from husband because he called her "mutt."

Minneapolis.—Patrolman John Schumacher suspended for failure to go to assistance of woman screaming in hotel.

Youngstown, O.—Council petitioned to pass legislation compelling car steps to be lowered on account of women's tight skirts.

Helena, Ark.—Mrs. W. H. Hall threw herself before just-divorced husband to protect him against Deputy Constable Nolan, during quarrel. Bullet killed her.

Pontiac, Ill.—Wm. Sullivan, farmer, and two horses killed by lightning.

Colorado Springs, Col.—Maurice Keesling, 18, shot and seriously wounded self. Said he was urged to act by ancestor who had suicided.

Denver.—Judge Hon. B. Lindsey, Denver Juvenile Court, critically ill at Battle Creek Sanitarium.

Champaign, Ill.—Posse hunting unknown negro who attempted to criminally assault Venus Chapman, 17, white girl.

Pittsburgh.—Miss Alice Putnam, art critic, employed by Andrew Carnegie as guide to parties visiting art galleries.

St. Louis.—Bellegarde, home where Virginia Carvel, heroine of "The Crisis," was wooed, now occupied by negroes.

San Giovanni Di Medua.—Montenegrins formally surrendered Scutari to naval commanders of great powers.

Washington.—Every diplomat in U.S. asked to help find two sets of plans recently stolen, disclosing method of firing 12-in. broadside of superdreadnought Pennsylvania.

Kalamazoo, Mich.—Dallas Boudeman, Jr., Paw Paw, married Freida H. Maier, vaudeville artist.

Paterson, N. J.—Patrick J. Quinlan, I. W. W. leader, found guilty of inciting silk mill strikers to assault policeman.