

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

The grand jury today returned 36 indictments. None of them was against a police official.

Wreck of freight train near St. Charles, Ill., blocked Great Western railway traffic.

City censors enforce new law making it misdemeanor to display publicly pictures in the nude. "September Morn" banished.

Robert B. Hall, 2500 Prairie av., owner and driver of taxi, severely beaten when he objected to man passenger beating woman companion.

Mrs. Edna Magee, arrested by Detective Sergeant Duffy and held four days with no charge against her, sued him for $50,000 for false arrest.

W. J. Calhoun spoke on "China" last night before Industrial club at Blackstone Hotel.

The Trib has come out with an attack on the Duket tuberculosis cure, which Billy Lorimer is having administered free to poverty-stricken sufferers at his West Side sanitarium.

Wm. Keegan, 2111 Seminary av., beat up Charles Sheppard, 2145 Racine av., who nearly ran him down with auto. Keegan arrested.

Herbert Longstaff, 4348 Calumet av., architect, tried to shoot self while calling on Ida Pabler, 1019 Dearborn av. Succeeded in shooting his hair off and scaring family cat to death.

Detective Sergeant James Duffy, who held Mrs. Ella Magee at S. Clark street station for four days for warrant and was roasted by Judge Uhler, has resigned to prevent being dragged before trial board.

Plot to oust Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, supt. of schools, seen as result of Board of Education's decision to select own speller.

Al Warren, negro who brought Mary Carter, white woman from Chicago to Gary, Ind., for immoral purposes, sentenced to one year in Joliet by Judge Landis.

William Boland, 33, 1833 Canalport av., "fire fan," tried to jump on back of fire engine. Missed. Died at County Hospital.

Anton Gaska, champion wrestler of Chicago police department, probably saved four children's lives by stopping runaway horse at North Central Park av. and George st.

Northwestern University, Evanston, grabbed $100,000 from general education fund pie in New York.

Alfred Watson, broker, seeking to have wife's alimony reduced, said his wife used to beat him regularly and that she snapped revolver in his face.

Mrs. Elsie Lofgren, 27, 1039 Barry av., suicide. Gas. Quarrel with husband.

Mayor Knotts, Gary, Ind., has ordered notorious red light district to be wiped out. "Mike de Pike" Heitler of Chicago is said to own several joints there.

Broken axle on train near Morgan street station of Oak Park "L" tied up traffic between 7:30 and 8:30 last night.

Frank Slaby found guilty of wife murder by jury in Judge Walker's court yesterday. Life sentence.

Five alleged burglars arrested by Maxwell street police after exciting chase.

Sergt. Hughes' flying squad from 22d street station arrested 40 men and women in private "flats." Fined $5 and costs each by Judge Hopkins.

James T. Harahan, son of late Jas. Harahan, former president of Illinois Central, secretly married May 15 to Marie Jeannette Lang, formerly of Wiesbaden, Germany.

Wm. Lasbon, 5752 Winchester av., Panhandle road conductor, killed. Fell under wheels of train.

Herman Lehrman, 875 Lill av., chauffeur for Bertram J. Byasiere, 4539 Hazel av., fined $200 and costs for speeding, by Judge Fry.

John Meyers, 1008 Austin av., crushed by elevator at foundry, 159 N. Jefferson st. May die.

"Goldie" Reese, whom Examiner