

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Detectives and members of Second Regiment, Illinois National Guard, began search for Capt. Wm. Ramaker of Company C, who disappeared Thursday evening after telling his wife he was going to Graham's Bank to deposit $450.

W. L. McCutcheon, 6604 Normal av., automobile salesman who took bichloride of mercury for aspirin, declared out of danger.

In his fight to prevent extradition, Edmund E. C. Von Klein, accused by Ethel Newcomb of marrying her and stealing $3,500 worth of diamonds, will declare that woman posed in Chicago as wife of Dr. G. F. Whitfield of Baltimore.

Dean Walter T. Sumner, chairman of school management body, says he does not intend to resign. Will take part in text book squabble.

600 persons who paid $1 each to see two ten-round prize fights at Tessville Grove went away disappointed. Six deputy sheriffs stopped fight.

Wladyslaw Dubarek and Katy Kruda, best man and bridesmaid on way to wedding perhaps fatally injured when carriage was struck by passenger train.

Chaffeur of auto No. 20,694 ran into post and wrecked his machine to avoid striking boy.

Need of separate hospital for consumptives of Jewish race emphasized at meeting of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society at Hotel Sherman.

Residents of Oak Park will open new park, June 7, with Sunday school carnival.

Kourney Kerar, 632 W. 12th st., cut on head and face in fight with several men in dance hall at W. 12th and S. Desplaines sts.

Burglars carried away jewelry worth $20,000 from home of Wm. A. Yager, 631 Rush st., after cutting electric wires and locking servants in their quarters.

Police baffled by strange disappearance of Capt. William Ramaker, 2nd Regiment, who walked out of his home, 4332 Fournoy st., Thursday and has not been heard of since.

Col. Roosevelt and party stopped here on way to suit for libel against George A. Newett, editor, at Marquette, Mich. Policemen would not let party in Lincoln Park Zoo after hours.

Policeman Richter and Olson, Hudson avenue station, had narrow escape in battle on rooftop with George Knoepple, 765 Uhland st., who had become suddenly insane.

Allen Crippen, 4247 E. Ravenswood Park av., and Thomas Mize, 12, badly injured when their motorcycle was struck by auto owned and driven by Mrs. Henry Redden, 5939 Redway Park.

MOTHER AND BABY BURNED TO DEATH IN CICERO FIRE

Mrs. Martha Lieberman, 60, and Lillian Jacobs, her 17-months-old adopted daughter, lost their lives, and five others were badly burned in a fire that destroyed a building occupied by a grocery store and home at Cicero, a suburb.

Fire broke out in the store of John Spoon and swept upward into the rooms occupied by the Lieberman family on the second floor. Lieberman, 58, the husband, and Harry Lieberman, 18, a son, fell in an attempt to rescue Mrs. Lieberman and the baby, who were sleeping in a room in the rear of the building.

Both were badly burned and Capt. Thomas Dooley of an engine company was burned about the face. Two firemen were burned.

Fifteen thousand scarlet women ply their trade in one borough of New York, according to young John-ny Rockefeller's investigating commission. The average number of "customers entertained" is 10 per day.