

in House of Lords Marquis of Lansdowne will move to postpone action until bill has been submitted to judgment of country.

Washington.—President Wilson has ordered construction of shower bath in cellar of White House.

Trenton, N. J.—Prof. W. G. Sedgwick told state board of health ancient eggs were best because Li Hung Chang brought eggs 100 years old with him when he visited America because there were none here old enough to suit him.

Washington.—Secretary Bryan says his answer to Japan's protest on California anti-alien law will be ready by Saturday.

Nashville, Tenn.—Alfred Adams, 24, convict, killed by live wire on top of prison walls when he tried to escape.

Boston.—David Farnsworth, crippled magazine writer, sentenced to pen for killing Thos. Hagan, whom he mistook for chicken thief, released on pardon granted by state executive council.

London.—Lady Sackville has invited jurors who gave her $3,500,000 to tea at her country home, Knole Park.

Albany, N. Y.—Governor Sulzer's friends quote Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall as saying: "It cost me half a million dollars to drive Geo. B. McClellan out of politics. I'll spend a million to ruin Sulzer."

Washington.—Margaret Draper, heiress to millions and prominent in New York and Washington society, engaged to Le Comte de la Tour d'Auvergne.

London.—Mrs. William D. Draper of Washington, U. S. A., formally denied today that her daughter Margaret was engaged to M. le Prince D'Auvergne.

New York.—Vincent Astor will build a children's home at Rhinebeck, N. Y., as memorial to his father, who went down with Titanic.

London.—Mrs. Beatrice H. Saunders, financial secretary of the Women's Social and Political Union, released June 23 after hunger-striking, re-arrested. Is under 15 months' sentence.

Wheeling, W. Va.—Bessie McIntyre, 18, jilted by her lover, Harry Pendleton, for Henrietta Alken, dressed as boy and got revenge by cutting out her lover and winning Miss Alken's love.

Newport, R. I.—Vinson Walsh McLean, the $100,000,000 baby, has a new toy, a $75,000 farm with a goat on it. The goat is the chief attraction.

Spokane.—Ed Erwin, telegrapher employed by International Railroad at Grand Junction, 20 miles east of here, shot and killed in station house.

Rome.—Postmaster general has received 300 wedding invitations since removal of ban against marriage of hello girls.

Passaic, N. J.—"Total number of children found intoxicated during year, 81."—Entry in Truant Officer Weber's report.

Towanda, Pa.—Miss Clara S. Loewus says she lived 20 weeks on stale bread, peanut butter and potatoes at cost of $10 and liked it.

Bridgeport, Conn.—Family physician and two specialists were unable to save life of Elizabeth Blake's $6,000 Japanese poodle. Placed in fine casket and buried with religious services.

Newark, N. J.—Mrs. Felicia Cantelope arrested for shooting at her brother-in-law, who, she says, wanted her to elope with him. How could she?

Oskaloosa, Ia.—Ziba Barr, auto salesman, fatally injured when auto turned turtle over nine-foot embankment.

St. Louis.—Eight women, all of this city, injured when north-bound Alton, Ill., car, in which they were riding, was derailed and wrecked.

Denver, Col.—Dr. E. Arthur Carr wants laws passed against Chautauqua salute; says it is insanity.

Portland, Me.—President Chas. S. Mellin, head of New Haven system,