

Illinois legislature, will enter law game in Chicago.

Judge Kersten, poisoned by clam, is recovering.

P. J. Higgins, saloonkeeper, 2051 W. Taylor st., robbed of $500 by two men.

Chas. Radovick, 4, 1838 S. Racine av., badly hurt by 18th st. car.

Special grand jury expects to return more vote fraud indictments tomorrow.

Police now believe blast which wrecked three buildings at Taylor and Halsted sts., was caused by gas and not by Black Hand bomb.

Mrs. Alma Johnson, 1023 Wellington st., with broom, routed two would-be burglars.

Mayor Harrison ordered arrest of any driver who unloads coal in street without first sprinkling it with water.

Judge Brentano sentenced Louis Ewe, 25, to life imprisonment for highway robbery with a gun.

Sergt. John V. Lacey, Stanton av. station, on trial, charged with running auto livery service in connection with police duties.

Second Court of Domestic Relations will be established Monday.

Dorothy Smith, 21, and Lucille Gilton, 2025 W. Adams st., arrested for disorderly conduct after chase.

W. H. Nepper of General Repair Co., 124 W. Ohio st., has received several letters threatening death unless he gives $1,000.

Elevated railways claim they are willing to take subway matter up with city.

Austin 40,000,000 gallons short in its water supply. Broken pump.

Anna Brady, 18, 2557 Washington blvd., bitten by muzzled dog.

S. T. Bovee, one of jurors who convicted Jack Johnson, trailed from Los Angeles and arrested here on complaint of woman who says she's his common-law wife.

$3,500 worth of clothes stolen from Paul Straus & Co., tailors, 2725 W. Madison st., recovered in barn, 948 W. Harrison st. Jas. Ryan arrested.

Building Trades Council and Building Construction Employers' Ass'n. have resumed their conferences.

John Smith, hurt in Aetna, Ind., Powder Co. explosion Tuesday, is dead.

Charles G. Gates passed through Chicago on way from Minneapolis to New York. Cost him $3,046 for special fare.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, English militant, will be here Oct. 27. Local suffragettes getting ready.

Mrs. Anna Barber, 70, 2840 Washington blvd., injured by House of Good Shepherd auto.

Anna Talmage, 1255 S. Morgan st., struck by auto owned by Jas. R. Block, 5543 Kenwood av.

George Taylor and Floyd Hall, negroes, admitted in court they stabbed N. J. Eichton, 457 W. 25th st., to death because he only had 60 cents when they held him up.

30,000 signatures urging William Hale Thompson to run for mayor have been secured. He won't unless 100,000 sign.

County Judge Owens held mock election in his office to instruct women.

Carmeilo Jerrioto, 42, laborer, 4556 S. Laffin st., fell five stories in Swift & Co. plant. Killed.

Donald C. Price, publisher Fruit Auction Reporter, sued for divorce. Cruelty and indiscretion charged.

$14,600 collected for special grand jury fund.

Two men in wagon badly hurt by Calumet & South Chicago Traction Co. car. Crowd prevented kidnaping by company ambulance.

Negroes lured A. Schwartze, expressman, 1309 Washburne av., into vacant house 2809 LaSalle st. Robbed him of $10.

—o—o—
"The time will come," thundered the orator, "when women will get men's wages!" "Yes," sadly muttered a man on the rear seat, "next Saturday night."