

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Miss Gussie Korshek, 3144 Douglas blvd., bitten by cat with rabies.

Two men threw brick through Ross Mandel's jewelry store, 1453 Milwaukee av. $150 worth of rings gone.

Trials of Daniel Donahue, Aillen Heppner and Isaac Stifel, in Funk case, set for Sept. 27.

Tony Latbra, 17, swiped apple from boy friend. Woman called police. Caught. Released.

Dr. B. F. Roller and Jess Westergard will wrestle at Forest Park tonight.

Mrs. Marie Chester, who her three kids, is walking from Middleotwn, N. Y., to Minneapolis in 65 days, arrived here and called on mayor.

Raphael Babi, 45, 720 Wells st., struck by Clark st. car at Ontario st. Died.

Body found in lake, foot of Congress st., partly identified as that of Matthew Brady, 45, former watchman at stockyards.

John L. McNamara, who failed in examination for chief engineer of schools, may get job through trick by friends. They plan to make duties lighter and have him try again.

U. S. District Attorney Miller, Indianapolis, has sent 725-page argument against granting defendants in famous dynamite cases new trials.

Robert and Johnny Bassett, two little niggers, 10 and 5, arrived here from Washington, D. C. Lost.

Frank Elliott, Orleans, Ind., held up by two men at 12th st. and Wabash av. Got $14 and draft for $400. They pulled out fountain pen and made him endorse check.

Chris Strasseim, former sheriff, may be next Republican candidate for president of County Board.

Robbers got $1,000 booty from home of M. J. Skillin, 249 S. Maple av., Oak Park. Nick Pape arrested as suspect.

Geo. Scherman, Riverdale, Ill., on way to Portland, took walk with two men he met in railroad station. Out $63 by confidence game.

Little Wheaton has scandal. $1,460 missing from special assessment paying fund.

State's Attorney Hoyne will soon start investigation of Guggenheim divorce.

J. C. O'Connor, Joliet real estate man, accused of forgeries amounting to $250,000, said to be on verge of mental breakdown.

Three girls, who had escaped from Geneva State Home, found living in cave near Geneva with three young men.

August C. Fromm sued for divorce because wife is in habit of beating him up.

Geraldine Miller, 3, 4207 Langley av., played with matches. Dead.

Nine o'clock curfew enforced in Zion City.

W. H. Mullen, ironworker, 4132 Calumet av., fell 50 feet. Dead.

McWeeny shifted eight sergeants. Five men arrested as gamblers in cigar store 68 W. Chicago av.

Anna May Manson, Wheaton, noted golfer, fined $10 for auto speeding.

Thelma Hubbard, 22, artist's model, found dead in room, 2955 Indiana av. Tablets found on dresser. Believed suicide.

Della Westburg, 19, 336 E. Oak st., missing since Thursday.

Ernest Borelli, 31, 117 N. 5th av., fined $100 for flirting. Arrested by Policewoman Alice Clement.

W. R. John, West Liberty, Ia., told police he lost $30. Gave it to man to pay express bill.

Phip Mitia, 31, tried to save brother, Henry, 12, from crowd of boys. Struck by brick. Skull fractured.

Anthony Basto, 23, 1710 N. Winchester av., stabbed by crowd of toughs who had insulted his wife. May die.

State's Attorney Hoyne will take ouster proceedings against President