

Duluth, Minn.—Snow fell in Northern Minnesota and along shores of Lake Superior. Record for early snowfall.

St. Petersburg.—Local newspapers declare that England, France and Germany have jointly notified Japan that if Japanese troops are landed at Nanking the three powers will be forced to do likewise.

Breslau.—Police report eight suicides among the 14 persons arrested in connection with scandal involving 72 school girls. Army officers, bankers, merchants and professional men among those held.

Monroe, Mich.—Frank Lemerand, 62, for many years chief of police, dropped dead. Heart disease.

Pontiac, Mich.—Body of Thomas Burke, Detroit sailor, found hanging in county jail. Had been arrested for attempting to stab policeman. Believed demented.

Racine, Wis.—Mrs. Bridget Ryan, 91, and Mrs. Michael Feeney, 68, found dead at Mrs. Ryan's home. Coal gas.

Limon, Col.—Posse searching for tramp who shot and killed Conductor Samuel E. Marts of Rock Island road.

Camden, N. J.—Four to six men reported killed and several injured when mixing house at Dupont Powder Mill blew up.

Syracuse, N. Y.—1,500 students in two high schools struck for shorter hours, better food in lunchrooms and to prevent abolition of frats. Police called to quell riot.

Buffalo.—Steel steamer Haddington aground and in danger of breaking up.

New Haven, Conn.—Green Kendrick, 62, formerly state senator and mayor of Waterbury, whose resemblance to Grover Cleveland led reporter to interview him in 1893 and publish story as coming from late president, dead.

New York.—Three trainmen killed and 20 passengers injured in head-on collision between two electric trains on Long Island railroad.

Pittsburgh.—Aleck Johns, Syrian, carried 11-inch dirk between his teeth when he set out to kill three men who had beaten him. Arrested.

East Liverpool, O.—After wading in river on suicide bent, George Wasson found the water too cold and postponed his death.

Waynesburg, Pa.—J. W. Closser punched burglar until he begged for mercy. Then kicked him out.

Newcastle, Pa.—Norman Vandivort found guilty in second degree of murder of Walter Linnenbrink. Has since become insane.

Lenox, Mass.—Four unidentified men stole $2,500 auto from garage of Phillip Blagden, New York.

Jersey City.—Thos. A. Edison, electrical wizard, still confined to bed. Throat trouble.

Boston.—Wellesley College students must pay advance of $50 in college fees, necessitated by high cost of living.

San Francisco.—Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti will take cases to Federal Court of Appeals.

San Diego, Cal.—Chas. R. Drummond, member of millionaire tobacco family of St. Louis, wanted in Missouri on charge of bigamy.

New York.—Paul Poirat, Parisian dressmaker, says slit skirt and shadow gown are too modest. American women lack daring.

Washington.—Sec'y of State Bryan has new hat. Velour. Fuzzy. Cost $8.

South Bend, Ind.—Mrs. Krienka, suffering from lockjaw, died when attendant tried to force spoonful of water down her throat.

Glasgow, Mont.—38,000 persons registered for Fort Peck Indian reservation opening, land lottery conducted by U. S. government.

Washington.—Black coffee only beverage served at dinner given by Speaker Champ Clark.

Anderson, Ind.—Mrs. Eva Stainbrook granted divorce when she swore husband led her around by nose, made her eat her meals bare-