

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Washington.—Twelve boys, winners in prize corn growing contest in Pennsylvania, were guests of Rep. Griest and met President Wilson.

Boston.—Prof. G. V. N. Dearborn, addressing School of Eugenics, says normal age for girl to marry is 17; not matured psychologically until 30 or 32.

Minneapolis.—After threatening lives of 44 sleeping men with two razors in municipal lodging house, John Walker was taken to hospital with broken head. Later jailed.

Washington.—Navy department declares Americans and American property in no danger at Tuxpan, Mexico.

Milwaukee.—Chief of Police Jansen says white slave traffic does not interlock with "mashing" here. Mashing is misdemeanor.

Hazelton, B. C.—Five bandits escaped with $10,000 taken from safe of Union Bank after they had shot Cashier McQueen. Posse on trail.

Philadelphia.—Claimed eggs will be appropriate present at Christmas here. Now 75 cents a dozen. Expected to reach $1.00.

St. Louis, Mo.—Aquila H. Dulaney, forger, captured. Alleged to have passed six worthless checks here during last month.

Eagle Pass, Tex.—Reported constitutionalists have captured Sabinas, Allende, Zaragoza and number of small towns in Mexico.

Harrisburg, Pa.—According to storage act regarding eggs, all eggs in storage bearing March stamp must be sold or thrown away during present month.

Pittsburgh.—F. G. Bishop, 43, widower, named defendant in $25,000 breach of promise suit filed by Miss Bessie Burton, 28, telephone operator.

Newark, O.—Fire destroyed Franklin block. $60,000 loss.

Menominee, Mich.—Steamer Plymouth lost in storm. Seven drowned.

Pittsburgh.—"Booze" was excuse given by John Dickson, "high sheriff" of Three Rivers, Que., when arrested for turning out in sheep-hide trousers and red shirt and emptying six-shooters.

Cleveland.—Three-cent fare likely to be withdrawn as result of losses sustained by railway company during storm.

Lima, Peru.—Reported 300 killed by earthquake at Abancay.

Rome.—Pope Pius received in audience Captain Maxwell and 150 American marines from "Florida." Presented them with medals.

London.—Estimated suffragets have caused $30,000,000 damage since they started militant campaign.

Kansas City, Mo.—Because Rev. Nathan Johnson, Baptist preacher, condemned alcohol, three men forced large quantity of liquor down his throat.

Belvidere, Ill.—Burglars fed chops to vicious bulldog at Mrs. Rose Rowan's home, then looted house. Escaped with $1,500 jewelry.

Washington.—Sec'y Bryan says president may appoint Plindell ambassador to Russia notwithstanding publication of letter written by Senator Lewis.

Tokio.—Japanese cruiser Idzumo ordered to Mexican waters.

New York.—John Purroy Mitchell, mayor-elect, and Mrs. Mitchell started on honeymoon deferred four years on account of politics.

Vera Cruz.—Mexican gunboats Bravo and Zaragoza opened fire on Maderistas attacking Tuxpan.

Washington.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook of North Pole fame is endeavoring to have congress investigate his discovery claim.

London.—"Men of England, do your duty," cried suffraget at annual St. Paul's service for seafarers. Four stout policemen put her out.

London.—After trying woman suffrage, lecturing in America and mov-