

DOINGS OF THE WORLD BOILED DOWN

Washington. — Vice-Pres. C. E. Mahoney, Western Federation of Miners, asked Sec'y of Labor Wilson to argue immediate congressional investigation of Calumet copper strike in Michigan.

Panama.—Miss Elaine Golding, New York swimmer, will not be allowed to swim Culebra Cut and Gatun locks.

Joplin, Mo.—2,000 zinc miners out of work. Five mines closed down because of low price of ore.

Naples.—50 Italians returning from N. Y. appeared as witnesses against 25 of Adriatic's crew held on charge of swindling.

Shreveport, La.—Mrs. Bella Stroud acquitted on charge of murdering husband. Claimed self-defense.

New York.—Moving pictures will be shown throughout country to trace Jessie McCann, Flatbush social worker.

Cripple Creek, Col.—Old Bible found in pocket of "Old Jack" Johnson, saloon porter, revealed his identity as F. B. Price, wealthy Wichita, Kas., manufacturer who disappeared 25 years ago. Dead.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson reported improved.

Albany, N. Y.—With governor's signature to measures, New York will have direct primary law, workmen's compensation, direct election of U. S. senators, provision for Massachusetts ballot and referendum for constitutional convention assured.

Paris.—Police have discovered agency promoting and performing illegal operations controlled by prominent men. Dealt with 15,000 women in France.

Atlantic, Ia.—E. S. Harlan, ex-receiver Atlantic Northern & Southern Railroad, indicted charged with embezzlement.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Mayor Wallace investigating to see if necessary funds can be secured for municipal Christmas tree.

Peoria, Ill.—Lilly Smothers, 35, Mapleton, suicided by hanging in women's detention room of City Hall. Had been paroled from Peoria State Hospital.

Paris.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, suffragist, whose license from Exeter jail expires Monday, left for London with Christabel Pankhurst.

Washington.—House passed resolution deploring death of Col. Gallard, Culebra Cut engineer, and granted year's salary to his widow.

Budapest.—Ex-member of parliament threw inkstand at premier of Hungary three years ago. Just sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Berlin. — Lieut. Von Forstner, young commander who caused Alsatian riots at Zabern, received 30 duel challenges from students.

Bellefontaine, O.—Miss Clara Baker wrote note on egg packed five years ago inviting romance. Received answer from N. Y. man today. Wanted to know age of egg.

New York.—Frank H. Pierce, attorney, missed overcoat after finishing meal. Got legal papers back with note, "Thanks for coat."

London.—Mrs. Sarah Egglestone left $40,000 in trust for her dog, Paddy.

Washington.—Andrew Carnegie characterized as "tommyrot" recent reports of impending widespread business depression in U. S.

Indianapolis. — Miss Emily E. Rhoades, supt. of State Woman's Prison, resigned.

Washington.—Number of senators reading novels of Brand Whitlock, ex-mayor Toledo, recently nominated minister to Belgium. Want to make sure he didn't write anything objectionable.

Granite City, Ill.—Durberth Nichols, 17, arrested for theft of $32. Wanted to go to mother in Birmingham, Ala., for Christmas.

Cincinnati.—Frank Selier, 30, confessed robbing 27 churches in Cin-