

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Humboldt Park train crashed into Garfield Park train. Derailed. Fog. Edgar aZne, Jr., 4, must chose between father and mother.

New building of Vassar Swiss Underwear Co., N. Maplewood and Diversey avs., damaged by fire. One fireman badly injured.

Rear end collision at Southport av. "L" station. No one hurt.

Wm. Murphy, 14, 1124 W. Van Buren st., and Patrick aMloney, 18, 2621 W. Harrison st., arrested. Said to have robbed Wakeford's dry goods store, 1922 W. Harrison st.

Padded brick men got two overcoats at Isaac H. Foreman's store, 65 W. Madison st.

William Jennings Bryan will speak before Chicago Real Estate Board tonight.

Wm. Manson, 48, 4752 W. Lake st., found dead at 4100 W. Madison. Police investigating.

Chicago divorce center of world in 1913. One divorce granted for every seven marriage licenses.

Six families routed by fire at 1807 S. State st.

Mary Peruchutz, 1205 Penn st., robbed by two men. Lost $4 and bank book.

Seventeen arrested by Funkhouser's squad in two raids.

H. G. LaPardie, 53 W. Erie, struck by auto. Condition serious. Driver got away.

Thomas O'Connell, 17, 1103 Loyola av., stopped by two detectives. Thought them highwaymen. Held them at bay by pointing finger at them.

Harry Daniels arrested. Charged with robbing F. T. Gunderson, 3302 Washington blvd. $200.

Olivet Memorial Church opened skating rink. Wants to keep young people from dance halls.

F. A. Jordan, 2406 Milwaukee av., who gave Chicago its Christmas tree, freed when arrested for driving vehicle without a license.

Thirty men fined $5 to $10 for refusing to work for meals and lodging by Judge Dolan. 153 forced to scab on street cleaners by municipal lodging house.

John Drickler, 3308 Herndon av., slipped from scaffold. Fell 18 feet. Dead.

Hubert Watson found guilty of contempt by Judge McGoorty, because he charged that attorney had influence with judge.

Christian Bertche and James Ryan, clairvoyants convicted of swindling Mrs. McEldowney, denied new trial.

John M. Murphy, special officer B. & O. Railroad, fined $100 and given three months in Bridewell. Wounded Frank Schodivitz.

Too many grocers cause of high cost of living, according to member Municipal Markets Commission. Steamship officials opposed central market plan.

Saloon license of Joe Grabiner and Robert Gray, 2108 S. Dearborn st., revoked by mayor. Fined $200 and costs in Morals Court.

F. S. Denny, 55, 721 N. Clark st., and Miss Lillian Callat, 19, arraigned on serious charge. Denny fined $20. Girl released on probation.

Ray Kenyon and Margaret Swan, 2978 S. Park av., and Marie Williams, 28 W. 22d st., fined $50. Disorderly house. 22 inmates fined $5 each.

Henry C. Watson, cabman, fined $10 for taking 3 men to 3624 Cottage Grove av. Mary Evens, keeper of dive, $25 and 5 inmates $5.

James Raftes and Gustave Massopoulos, owners poolroom, 2648 Armitage av., fined $50 each. Allowed minors in place.

Twenty men arrested in gambling raid, 614 N. Clark st. John Reardon booked as keeper.

Emil Carlson, 35, 930 Barry av., struck by auto. Dead. Carl Speike, 1044 School st., driver.

John Blonack, driver, 1424 Augusta st., injured. Car struck wagon. Miss