

av., placed under bond. Is tired of being dictated to.

John Eberhardt, 3417 W. 64th st., first superintendent of Cook county schools, died from apoplexy.

Nicholas Simmons held to grand jury for operating confidence game.

Ludwig Rabe, 2505 Haddon av., left wife because sister hung around.

Commonwealth Edison Co. to erect $600,000 generating station at 2800 Roscoe st.

Nicholas Schmidt, driver, 1857 Washburne av., severely bruised. Hearse struck by street car.

Edward J. Durrlein, 2166 Ogden av., fined $25 for selling cigarettes to minors. Case against George Pappas dismissed.

Harry J. Kavanaugh, saloonkeeper, 6300 Cottage Grove av., denies "26" game charge.

Mrs. Margaret Burke, 1450 S. Union st., who claimed dead husband is alive, held for sanity test.

Mrs. H. Pruter, Aurora, wed Pruter to get nurse for children. Haled him to court for beating her and refusing to be nurse.

New car line to Riverdale from E. 138th st. and Indiana av. opened.

Mrs. Johanna Gratz, 1418 Fullerton av., held for murder. Alleged to have performed illegal operation on Mrs. Alma Roos, 39, 1917 N. Keeler avenue.

Mrs. Michael McCarthy, 9547 Commercial av., fined $5. Bought stolen grain for chickens. Three men fined $10 for same offense.

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell accuses husband of attending pajama tango party. Wants divorce.

"Dancing tango ruined girl I hoped to make my wife," wrote anguish-stricken lover to Funkhouser.

Samuel Witherspoon, 1142 W. Jackson Blvd., walked into open shaft at 30 S. Jefferson st. Dead.

Lorenz Dombrowski, 1156 Cherry st., killed by fall in elevator shaft.

Members of railway employes' associations claim denial of passes to members of family means virtual reduction of wages. Want utilities board to grant free transportation.

Three foreign money counterfeiters escaped from inspectors, Porter county, Ind. Turned out spurious 1,000-mark bills.

Henry W. Borchers, 1304 Elmsdale av., jumped from window. Dead.

Nine arrested as speeders in vicinity of N. Clark st. and Sheffield av.

Body of Walter Leuschke, 2056 N. Karlow av., recovered. Fell into Bang's lake, Waukegan.

Walter Van Dyke, 4, 1507 E. 66th st., died from burns. Played with matches.

Joseph Witek, counterfeiter, got 6 months at Bridewell. Light sentence due to tuberculosis.

Fred Von Baudessine held for grand jury. Alleged to have passed worthless checks.

Benjamin Potorowski alleged slayer of Joseph Noreika of 1515 S. Canal st., to be brought from New Jersey.

Abraham Botkin, 1238 Newberry av., said to be worth $5,000, alleged to have beaten his children, Harry, 12, and Eva, 14, when they failed to sell enough gum on street.

Bar Association wants to disbar Samuel Z. Pincus in federal courts.

Frank M. Henning, absconding cashier, Schaumburg, Ill., captured in New York.

Miss Louise Pearce, 14, 4701 Kenmore av., found 2 burglars in home. Screamed. Burglars beat it with $200 worth of jewelry.

Mrs. Clarissa Stevenson, 1616 S. Oakley Blvd., robbed. Purse snatcher.

John O'Connell, 62, 1159 W. Adams st., robbed. John Sheehan, 444 S. Dearborn st., and Frank Ryan, 3242 Clifton Park av., arrested.

FAVOR FEDERAL PROBE

The Bakery Workers' and Confectioners' International Union of America passed resolutions against the conditions now prevailing in the copper mine district and calling upon the president to launch a federal investigation of those conditions.