

LAST EDITION
SENSATIONAL STORIES TOLD BY SURVIVORS
OF THE TRAGIC CRASH IN MID-OCEAN—
TRAINS CRASH IN FOG—MANY INJURED

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 105

Chicago, Saturday, Jan. 31, 1914

ONE CENT

GIGANTIC CONSPIRACY AIMED AT HENRY FORD BY BIG AUTO MEN

Organization of Detroit and Western Cities Manufacturers Plan To Blacklist Man Who Startled Country With Profit-Sharing Plan—Claim Ford Idea Destroys Man's Incentive to Become More Efficient.

A gigantic conspiracy to wreck Henry Ford completely for daring to raise the salary of his workmen came to light today with the visit of J. K. Turner, the notorious strike-breaking chief of Cleveland, O.

Turner on this occasion represents an organization of automobile manufacturers of Detroit and other Western cities who are panic stricken at the humanitarian idea of Ford's and are plotting to blacklist him.

For this work they have engaged Turner, who operates the Manufacturers' Information Bureau in Cleveland, which is a clearing house for strikebreakers. Turner also runs The Mediator, a magazine devoted to the interest of labor-hating corporations.

Turner is already busy formulating plans and came to Chicago today to visit some local manufacturers. He is stopping at the Great Northern