

NOON EDITION

NOON EDITION

FUSILADE OF BULLETS BRINGS DOWN GUNMEN
GIRLS ESCAPE THROUGH HOLE IN ROOF IN FIRE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 125

Chicago, Tuesday, Feb. 24, 1914

ONE CENT

MOTHER AND TWO CHILDREN SUFFER FOR THE SINS OF THE FATHER

In Order That His Wife and Babies Might Eat, Oscar Schneider Stole Enough From His Employer to Make His Pay a Living Wage—Now He's In Prison and His Family Are To Be Deprived of Their U. S. Living Rights.

For the sins of the father and husband, must the wife and children suffer, according to the decision of duly accredited representatives of our government at Cincinnati, O.

Tomorrow, the people of the United States, through these "duly accredited representatives," are going to put a Belgian mother and her two little babies out of our country. We are going to order, or deport her back to her native land—Belgium.

And, the reason this Mrs. Oscar Schneider and her eight-year-old daughter, Simone, and her three-year-old son, Albert, of Cincinnati, O., are going to be refused the right to longer make their home in the Land of the Free, is owing to no fault of their own. The man of the family carries that blame on his shoulders.

Oscar Schneider is at present in the Kentucky penitentiary at Frankfort. He is there because he tried to solve the high cost of living problem