

COP 813 WASN'T GAME TO PINCH LT.-GOV. BARRATT O'HARA

One of Chicago's big cops, on strike duty to protect Henrici's big restaurant against American-working girls, almost pinched Lt.-Gov. Barratt O'Hara Saturday night—but didn't.

Lt.-Gov. O'Hara was walking along Randolph street near Henrici's with Geo. Koop, and Koop introduced him to one of the picketing waitresses.

As O'Hara was shaking hands with the girl Cop 813 grabbed him by the arm and said:

"Come along, now!"

O'Hara's eyes flashed and he came right back:

"I'll dare you to arrest me. It's about time we were finding out if a free American citizen can be insulted and threatened with arrest by a Chicago policeman for shaking hands in the public highway with an American working girl."

"Come on along," said No. 813. "We can't have a crowd collecting on the street."

The lieutenant-governor of Illinois didn't "come on along," but he did come across with a piece of his mind, telling what he thought of union workers and their persecution by officers of the law.

Evidently somebody tipped off to Cop 813 who O'Hara was and the pinch didn't come off.

"Where's my umbrella?" demanded the wife of a member of Congress. "I'm afraid I've forgotten it, my dear," meekly answered her husband. "It must be in the train." "In the train!" snorted the lady. "And to think that the affairs of the nation are entrusted to a man who doesn't know enough to take care of a woman's umbrella."

Nicotine is in great demand in France for spraying grapevines and fruit trees. It is supplied in an extract containing about 3.5 ounces to the quart, and also in a mixture with tobacco juice.

THE GARBAGE MAN

By Jim Manes.

You can always tell he's coming,
You know he's passing by.
His presence is quite prominent,
Now here's the reason why—
He gathers up the scraps, folks,
From every alley can.
And there usually comes a whistle
From the good old garbage man.

P. S.—He is strong for his job and the job is STRONG for him.

MRS. MEDILL McCORMICK GOES ON PICKET DUTY IN STRIKE

Mrs. Medill McCormick and Ellen Gates Starr, assistant to Jane Addams at Hull House, were on the picket line with the striking waitresses today.

The high-handed methods of the police continued and six of the pickets were arrested.

Miss Starr protested against the actions of the officers and was immediately nabbed by Officers Baldwin and Breen.

"As a citizen I protest against the arrest of girls who were doing nothing," said Miss Starr, as she was arrested.

Miss Starr was taken to the Central station and booked for disorderly conduct. The desk sergeant offered to release her on a $25 cash bond. She refused to put up the cash bond and was taken to the Harrison street station.

Mabel Burke, Cora Steen, Marie Aldrich, Marie Shannon and Anna Tinues were arrested today on charges of conspiracy and disorderly conduct.

WEATHER FORECAST

Increasing cloudiness with probably light snow or rain late tonight or Tuesday; rising temperature; lowest tonight about 23 degrees; variable winds shifting to southeasterly. Temperature Sunday—Highest, 20; lowest, 10.