

trust" should be accepted and suit dropped.

Dr. J. Frank McKinley, 5440 Cornell av., sued for $25,000. Cleanthe Vassardakis alleges "malpractice." Doesn't like way doctor operated on nose.

John P. Cummings, manufacturer, accused of "doping" Miss Dorothy Moore, released on $3,000 bond.

Richard Schultz held to grand jury in connection with murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Healy.

Edward Osterberg, chauffeur, exonerated by coroner's jury. Auto killed Guiseppi Fere, 1925 Federal st.

Mrs. Gertrude Cashman wants body removed from grave in B'nai Moshe cemetery. Stranger buried in her lot.

Cook County Prohibitionists will hold annual banquet, Thursday, Mar. 5, 6:30 p. m., at Kimball Cafe, 118 W. Monroe st.

Mrs. Martin Herdahl, 3422 Fournoy st., went to answer telephone. Strange man entered. $700 jewels gone.

Rudolph H. Faulbaum, Detroit, arrested. Charged with fraudulently obtaining $1,754.

Charles M. Dickinson arrested in Stony Butte, Mont. Wanted here for alleged embezzlement of $2,500.

Quartermaster Sergeant Ross, Fort Sheridan, struck by C. & N. W. train. Condition serious.

Bernard J. Mahoney accused with tampering with ballots in vote fraud trial. Alleged to have illegally marked ballots for Hoyne.

Pennsylvania terminal plans may be completed tomorrow. Agreement between city and railroad may then be reached.

Timothy B. Guerin, 4825 S. Halsted st., wanted for shooting Andrew Kelly. Kelly died. Guerin disappeared.

Auto belonging to Albert Fink, assistant prosecutor in oleo cases, stolen.

Ella Flynn, 26, 845 W. 54th st., charged with tampering with witness. Alleged to have asked Joseph Luby to secrete himself to kill prosecution of brother for alleged theft.

CORNER ORDERS INQUEST INTO DEATH OF STAYART

Coroner Hoffman ordered an inquest held this afternoon into the death of Louis W. Stayart, wealthy retired grocer, 5424 Kenmore avenue, who died early today from a gunshot wound sustained Feb. 23. The shooting was not reported to the police until Stayart died today. Members of his family said today that Stayart was found unconscious in the basement of his home, with a bullet wound near his heart and a revolver at his side. They refused to say whether the shooting was suicidal or accidental.

DEAD

Wife—My first husband would eat anything I cooked!

Hubby—Yes? An' where is he now?

German labor unions report an increase in membership of 150,000 the last year, grand total being 2,500,000.