

MRS. EMMELIN EPANKHURST IS HEADED BACK TO JAIL

Glasgow, Scotland, March 10.—By a ruse, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, untamed leader of the militant suffragets, re-arrested for the seventh time since her conviction for inspiring the bomb explosion in the home of David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, was spirited out of Glasgow by Scotland Yard detectives and started for Holloway jail.

Warned that suffragets, armed with umbrellas, hammers, bombs and other weapons, were picketing all railway stations determined to rescue Mrs. Pankhurst if possible, the detectives took her by automobile to a way station outside the city and there put her aboard a train.

Despite the injuries she received in the riot that attended her arrest, the militant leader strongly resisted every move of the police. She refused to walk, and was forcibly carried from the local jail to the automobile that took her to the way station. The detectives had to hold her in the auto.

London, March 10.—In revenge for the re-arrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, an unidentified suffraget mutilated Valasquez's Venus in the National gallery. The woman used a hatchet and destroyed a work of art which was valued at $200,000. She was arrested and declined to give her name.

MOYER BEFORE CALUMET MINE STRIKE PROBERS TODAY

Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, will appear before the congressional committee investigating the Calumet mine strike today.

The greater part of the testimony heard yesterday came from members of the Michigan state militia, who were trying to defend themselves against the charges which have been made against them by the Calumet strikers and their families.

Gen. Perley L. Abbey, head of the militia, said that he had assembled

2,765 men in Calumet, but they only had trouble with "disgruntled" men.

MERELY COMMENT

Go ahead and buy the Cubs; everybody's doing it.

It's entirely safe. Maje Punkhouser can't censor baseball.

Dapper Jimmie Simpson, who is the main squeeze at the big Marshall Field store, has joined the gang that is fighting the Waitresses' Union.

Jimmie is a brave laddybuck, all right.

Yesterday he went to the mayor and helped holler for help.

Gee whiz! what do the big employers want the mayor to do?

Already the cops have man-handled waitresses and broke a few arms.

Won't the Employers' Union be satisfied until somebody turns a Gatling gun on the girls?

Mayor Harrison might as well show that bunch the door.

They'll be among the first to swat him politically the first chance they get.

Jimmie Simpson should not waste his time fussing with the Henrici strike.

He might better keep busy trimming hats over at the big store.

Four years is too long a term for aldermen unless the people have the right to recall.

Two years is just about two years too much for some aldermen.

And now the Journal says the $11,000,000 subway fund has disappeared.

Says the city got hard up and lent itself that money for other purposes.

One thing we like about President Wilson is the delightful way he has of paying no attention to Bill Hearst's saffron sheets.

Hearst might have rings on his fingers and bells on his toes, but Woodrow can't hear him.

Five women in the city of Philadelphia hold municipal positions.