

Drummer demanded damages from Miss Olsen's partner. Fight. Arrested for disorderly conduct.

George Jaeger, 3800 Rhodes av., held for grand jury. Alleged to have robbed George W. Pennington, 3957 Grand blvd.

Joseph Anderson, driver, severely injured when wagon collided with street car.

Switch engine struck watchman's shanty at W. 21st pl. Hurlled it on roof of Charles H. Milles Foundry Co. Stove in shanty overturned. Fire. Loss $20,000.

Oscar Tebo, 6501 S. Marshfield av., suicided. Gas.

Theodore Christopolos, 739 W. Polk st., robbed on Wentworth av. car. Lost $172.

Resolution adopted by National Advertisers Ass'n urging president to pass "C. O. D." postage bill.

George King, 1118 Cambridge av., severely injured when his motorcycle collided with auto.

Hanford F. Donnelly held to grand jury for confidence game. Obtained $16,825 from Dr. Ralph Elmergreen, Milwaukee.

Melville and Lawrence Carr, 2119 Sheffield av., reported missing.

Dark streets to be illuminated. Contract involves spaces under 830 railroad viaducts.

Jacob Graner, 414 N. Desplaines st., struck with axe by Joseph Potcheck. Graner may die. Potcheck held.

E. Abrahams, Gary, blown into street by wind. Leg fractured.

T. J. Teehan, saloonkeeper, 1001 W. Madison st., fined $50 and license suspended week for selling liquor to 16-year-old girl.

$500 reward offered by C., M. & St. P. Railroad for arrest of men who wrecked passenger train March 15.

$30,000,000 worth of construction work opening up. Means jobs for 15,000.

Arthur Schall, Great Northern Hotel, fined $25 and costs. Flirting.

State's Attorney Hoyne has dropped Wayman fee suit. Says position is untenable. Cannot attack and defend at same time.

Home of Mrs. M. Gibson, 653 N. Western av., robbed by well-dressed woman.

Robb Roy Rickett, head of bankrupt art concern, may be established in business again by creditors.

John F. Schiffman, 5232 Hirsch st., venieman, before Judge McKinley said that he would hang woman but never hang man.

Wife of Frederick W. Walters, sales manager Charles G. Stevens & Co., granted divorce because hubby entertained other women.

James McVittie, president of McVittie Plating Works, called cruel by wife in divorce suit.

—O—O—
MUCH MISERY AVOIDED

The Optimist—You shouldn't call down curses on the head of the man who threw that banana peel there. Look on the bright side.

The Victim—How can there be any bright side?

The Optimist—Why think of the stomach ache if the peel had been eaten instead of thrown away.

—O—O—
The little country of Sweden, way up in the northern peninsula, was the first to extend any measure of suffrage to women.