

Cummings then related a conversation he said he had with a Mrs. Sherwood, with whom Dorothy lived, during which he says Mrs. Sherwood threatened to make it unpleasant for him if he did not do something for Dorothy.

The case was continued until April 13.

GIRL SUES FATHER FOR BIG SUM— —SPANKING THE CAUSE

New York, April 10.—Asserting that a spanking her father gave her four years ago still hurts, Mrs. Lena Israel is suing Isaac Goldman for $5,000 damages.

When the spanking was administered Lena was unmarried and a stenographer, but her wages were said to have been so low that her father maintained her—therefore he declares he had a right to spank her. The father says the girl's husband is not acting in good faith by urging the suit.

MCCORMICK ATTACKS CASE— —SOME LARGE SHOCK

Women who have attended the County Board meetings during the past few months received a shock yesterday when Aleck McCormick, president of the County Board, assaulted and apparently tried to strangle the board's legal adviser, Chas. C. Case, Jr., assistant state's attorney.

The argument came after McCormick had tried to force payment on several big bills presented by his friend, Richard E. Schmidt, whom he appointed county architect.

Several members of the board objected to paying the bills, characterizing them as "outrageous." McCormick began to froth.

"You are all mad because I vetoed the state's attorney's bills," he said.

"Several people have called you a liar and I believe you are," said Case.

McCormick then forgot his pink tea manners and sprang at young Case, who is several pounds lighter than McCormick. The action was a shocking surprise. They had seen Aleck called nearly everything by Commissioner Frank Regen in the past without ever batting an eye and his sudden move was entirely unlooked for.

Several commissioners dragged him off Case. The matter was reported to State's Attorney Hoyne.
