

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Railroads may evade county tax. Failure to pass county budget used is excuse. Roads to use courts to lodge payment of $300,000.

Automobile light board appointed by Chief Gleason. Will enforce new vehicle ordinance.

John J. Bradley, former alderman 30th ward, appointed U. S. marshal Northern Illinois.

Drys carried 24 towns. 78 saloons 30.

Two women aldermen elected. Mrs. Alice Highland, Progressive, at Charleston, and Mrs. Mary Klump, Independent, Robinson.

Five women and one man named in plot to drive negro from Oak Park. Will be quizzed about mysterious fire in Fred Jefferson's home.

Mrs. P. J. Duffy, 6345 Drexel blvd., tried to settle argument over excessive freight charges with C., R. I. & P. manager with gun. Fined $50 and costs.

Albert R. Tearney sued for $10,000 by father of David Weinstein, 8. Child killed last November by auto.

Daniel La Blang, cabaret singer, up for wife abandonment. Seventh time since marriage.

Raymond Cole and Otto Liehr, 18, arraigned for theft. Paroled for year.

Earnest C. Mtichell arrested. Alleged to have forged signature to $50 check.

Robert Zaleski, attorney Desplaines, arrested for falsifying records. Fraud relates to $85,000 village paving decision.

Harry Jacobs, Jr., negro, arrested. Wanted in Louisville, Ky., for six-year-old murder.

Three new vote fraud cases started by Special State's Att'y Northrup.

Axel Anderson, 3835 Southport av., charged with attempting to flirt with Policeman Patrick Stark's wife. Discharged.

Prible Machine Works, S. Chicago, burned. Loss $100,000.

Harry Grossman, 2406 12th st., struck by Northwestern train. Leg crushed. Unidentified man picked up on tracks. May die.

Edward E. Dean, 5447 S. State st., charged with operating confidence game. Held under $2,000 bonds.

Frank Diletto, 1121 S. Wabash av., married April 7. Angry father-in-law locked up bride. Hubby wants court to help get wife.

Joseph Clark and Paul and Edward Covitz, convicted in 1913 as members of "arson trust," denied rehearing by Supreme Court.

Trial of Raymond Harrison, 18, 6536 Ellis, charged with contributing to delinquency of Marjorie Chauncey, 17, continued.

Body of unidentified man with head almost cut off found in box car at Congress Park, Ill.

Two strangers visited Alpha Delta Phi house, 675 E. 60th st. Claimed to be members of fraternity. Entertained by Henry Schull. Watch gone.

Petition of Omar C. Harris to invalidate private employment agency law denied.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Green, Oak Park, demand proof from St. Vincent's Asylum that Mary Fidelis Murray, 2, is dead. Child was taken from adopted parents by institution.

Body of Percival French, 1001 W. Erie av., found on prairie W. 79th st. and S. Oakley av. Death due to exposure.

Body of unidentified man, 40, found in Calumet river. Head crushed.

Case against Edward O'Donnell, charged with killing Peter De Rock, non-suited.

Salvation Army to open matrimonial bureau. Believe easy marriage would stop social evil.

Mr. E. J. Davis will speak at Grace Church forum, Sunday, April 26. Subject, "Dry Side of the Liquor Question."

William Well opened delicatessen store, 816 W. 71st st. No business.