

COMMANDS MEX. ARMY OUTSIDE VERA CRUZ

Gen. Maas

General Maas, Mexican commander of Vera Cruz, who fled at the approach of our bluejackets, is chief of Huerta's forces guarding railroads leading to Mexico City from Vera Cruz.

Seaman C. D. Cameron, home was at 108 Doescher street, Brooklyn, N. Y., battleship Florida, seriously wounded in attack on Vera Cruz.

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

$50,000 damage suit filed by Thos. P. Beamish and Simon J. Gorman against Capewall Horeshoe Nail Co. Attorneys refuse to discuss case.

Home of Harriett A. Bischoff, 4064 Broadway, damaged by fire. Loss $2,000.

Dietrick Stopper, 5231 S. Sawyer av., dropped dead at Madison and State sts. Heart disease.

Mrs. Ignatz Kooperinski dragged hubby into court. Claimed he drank. Hubby sobbed, "She don't like my bow-legs." Case dismissed.

William Moore, 16 months old, 52 E. 56th st., found some pills on dresser. Swallowed them. Dead.

Manager of Roy Jones' cafe gone. Bartender says business does not pay. $27,000 place may close for good.

Joseph Bistetter, 2425 Diana court, struck by street car. Skull fractured.

Body of unidentified man found in quarry, Harvey, Ill.

Fred Bolt, 16, 506 W. 103d st., exonerated. Shot brother. Coroner's verdict accidental.

Abolition of committee on sites recommended by chairman of investigation committee of school board. Open meetings advocated.

Frances Vander, 17, 2122 Greenwich av., found in Union passenger station. Runaway. Taken home.

Maxwell street open mart swept by wind. Miniature tornado sent chickens, dress goods and fish flying.

Suit against Lt.-Gov. Barratt O'Hara for $32.50 and interest by O. A. Samuels continued until May 8.