

WE WOMEN MARTYR OURSELVES FOR BEAUTY.

BY IDAH McGLONE GIBSON

A famous man said recently that women were never as attractive as now in the history of the world.

And never did the average woman think so much of her appearance or practice so many artificial beautifying methods as at present.

"The eyes must be long and narrow." Consequently some women will have their lids slit at the corners, with a lancet, and while the wounds are healing the lids are drawn out, and the result a longer and more wide open eye.

"The upper lip must be short and