

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Robert L. Friendly and Charles B. Swett plead guilty to taking records from John Magnuss & Co. Judgment suspended.

$2,035,000 estate of Henry M. Hooker goes to daughters.

W. E. Whitehead, agent for Standard Home Company, held to grand jury for operating confidence game.

C. I. Hendricks, president and director of Merchant's Reserve Life Insurance Company, under fire. $14,000 shortage being investigated.

18-year-old "Raffles" sought by police. Well-dressed burglar speaks several languages and has gotten $2,000 loot.

Drainage trustees had weekly row. Criticism of women in political weekly cause of yesterday's battle.

Bridewell contract system ended. Prisoners to work for city. May be employed on streets and in garbage plant.

Joseph Tempel, 15, and Henry Mezzano, 18, held to grand jury in connection with murder of Agelaus Spilotes.

Miss Inez Pickering, nurse at County Hospital, dropped pot of cocoa. Head, feet and hands severely burned.

Illinois Central Railroad to build $400,000 hospital near Jackson Park.

Miss Abie Williams, nurse at St. Luke's Hospital, eloped with Capt. James Alexander, English millionaire. Alexander fell in love with nurse while in hospital.

Louis Abrahams sentenced to six months in Bridewell and given $100 for taking Mrs. Mary Foxe's purse while woman was praying.

Jacob M. Berz, 47758 Princeton av., accused by Phillip Moeller, 4462 Princeton av., of attempting to mistreat 12-year-old daughter. Suicided.

Mrs. Fannie Epstein, 820 S. Marshall av., held for theft. Alleged to have taken $245 worth of jewels from Cyrus Landon, 2015 W. Adams st.

Body of baby girl found crammed in shoe box in Graceland Cemetery.

Body of man taken from lake off Belmont av. May be one of three men drowned at Lawrence av. crib.

Earl Hukell, who was shot March 8 in saloon fight, died at Alexian Hospital.

Auto crashed into building 4043 Greenview av. Machine demolished. Joy riders fled.

A May-day parade will be held Sunday. It starts at 1 o'clock from 12th st. and Ashland av. and is under the auspices of the Jewish Council and other branches of the Socialist party.

Illinois suffragists near split. Women divided on national program for equal suffrage.

William W. Willis, 729 E. 87th st., conductor of Seminole Limited, shot by Mrs. Nellie Higgs, 32, 7410 Ingle-side av. Willis, who was named in her husband's divorce suit, may die.

Edward Lelaniowski, 10, 2849 N. Springfield av., played war with Louis Karasinski, 12. Gun discharged. Edward dead.

National headquarters of American College of Surgeons may come here. Location committee favors Chicago.

Rosa Kite, 1045 W. 13th st., had two beaus. Couldn't decide. Three armed men bound and gagged her and turned on gas. Revived. Jake Steinfield, jealous suitor, blamed.

Oak Park "L" given four months to raise tracks. Failure to submit plans by July 1 will stop operation of road.

Railroads refused to pay county tax. Claim 54 cents on $100 valuation is too high.

Lieut.-Gov. Barratt O'Hara will speak at the Grace Church open forum, Wabash av. and 15th st., Sunday, May 3. Subject: "Hunting a Job at $4 a Week."

Body of Harry M. Lent, 2823 Warren av., found in lake. Disappeared Oct. 28.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, opera singer, assailed by hubby in divorce