SHALL BOYS ORGANIZE TO DEMAND THE RIGHT TO PLAY AND HAVE FUN?

Chicago Boy Raises Big Question of the Highest Importance—Why Do Policemen Chase the Boys Off the Corner?—And Where Will They Go To Play?

BY N. D. COCHRAN

I have a letter from a boy that brings up a question which is probably more important to all of us than it is to this particular boy. I most earnestly invite the thoughtful consideration of the men and women of Chicago to this letter:

Chicago, June 3, 1914.

Dear Mr. Cochran:—I am sending you this letter to ask your advice on a matter of importance. I am a working boy and live in the neighborhood of Western avenue and Lexington street, and at night go down to the corner to play.

There are also a number of other boys who work that go down there, too. In this particular neighborhood there is no place to play except on the street; so that is where we play. But when we play there the policemen are always chasing us and taking us to the station. It has happened regu-
