

1,000,000 WOMEN IN NATION-WIDE FIGHT AGAINST LAWS OF NATION

Mrs. Mary I. Wood of Portsmouth, N. H., head of the bureau of information, will probably lead the debate in favor of "sane styles for sane women." This is what she has to say:

"Women have written to me, both personally and as manager of the bureau of information of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, complaining that they were unable any longer to buy skirts which did not hinder locomotion.

"Men have stopped me on the Raiding the Citadel of Dame Fashion.

Will nearly 1,000,000 daughters of Eve raid the citadel of Dame Fashion and call a nation-wide strike on modern-day styles of dress during the meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs?

Has long-suffering femininity really decided at last to combine against the fetters of fad?

street to call my attention to some particular noticeable costume—one of those which covered everything and concealed nothing—and have asked if there was not something that could be done about it.

"Influenced by these things, I moved by my own observation, I am led to ask myself and the club women
