

CANADIAN SINGER WINS WORLD FAME

Madame Edvina

Vancouver, B. C.—Out of Vancouver rather than Paris or Vienna comes the world's newest and brightest grand opera star—Mme. Louisa Edvina. She has created a furore this season in Paris.

When Mme. Edvina left Vancouver several years ago she was known as Mlle. Marie Louise Lucienne Juliet Martin. She was very proud of her names, but her first concert manager had no respect for them, and he re-named her Louise Edvina. In private life she is Hon. Mrs. Cecil Edwards and the sister-in-law of Lord Kensington.

CLEVER GIRL LOOKS AFTER A KINGDOM

Elizabeth Congden

Miss Elizabeth Congden, daughter of Isaac E. Congden of Omaha, chief counsel for various water power propositions in the West, has cares of her own.

She has a kingdom to look after, so her father's Supreme Court fights to save the Harvester trust's goat do not look so very serious to her.

Miss Congden is a charming brunette. Besides that, she is Queen of Quivera. Quivera isn't on the average wall map of the world, but it is entirely surrounded by imaginary lines and is bounded by enthusiasm.

It is Omaha's trade territory, and was so named by the ancient inhabitants of North America and revived by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, an organization of Omaha business men who manage the annual fall festivities there.
