

sent report to Consular Trade Review stating Winnipeg would be fine place to live if it were not for cold winters.

New York.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, will be allowed to go back to Pittsburgh if Supreme Court of U. S. agrees.

Whitesburg, Ky.—3 of 11 persons shot by Wm. Day while on rampage at Neon, Ky., will probably die.

Bluefields, W. Va.—Reported 25 "whitecappers" went to home of Mrs. Delia Nestor. Shotguns severely wounded 18.

Davenport, Ia.—Referendum and prohibition fights on in Iowa state federation of labor convention.

Bandon, Ore.—$200,000 damage done by fire which destroyed large portion of business section.

BY AND ABOUT WOMEN

The Queen of Roumania has the largest collection of dolls in the world, over 1,444 in all.

One-fourth of all the female students in the German universities are studying medicine.

A woman juror in Watts, Cal., was excused so that she could go home and nurse her baby.

The United States Supreme Court holds that the Massachusetts ten-hour woman's labor law is valid.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, militant suffrage leader of England, says: "We women have presented larger petitions in support of our enfranchisement than were ever presented for any other reform. We have succeeded in holding greater public meetings than men have ever held for any reform. We have been driven to do this. We are bound to go on."

FEMININE FACTS

Since January, when a New York automobile school began to accept woman students, fifty have graduated.

English society women plan to open tea shops at several of the continental resorts.

CANADIAN SINGER WINS WORLD FAME

Madame Edvina

Vancouver, B. C.—Out of Vancouver rather than Paris or Vienna comes the world's newest and brightest grand opera star—Mme. Louisa Edvina. She has created a furore this season in Paris.

When Mme. Edvina left Vancouver several years ago she was known as Mlle. Marie Louise Lucienne Juliet Martin. She was very proud of her names, but her first concert manager had no respect for them, and he renamed her Louise Edvina. In private life she is Hon. Mrs. Cecil Edwards and the sister-in-law of Lord Kensington.