

man by name of Landis in Barr & Widen $1,000,000 fraud trial. Got laugh.

Arthur Feltz, 13, who accidentally shot grandmother, exonerated. Coroner's jury scored sale of firearms.

Robert Arnold, 1429 W. Austin av., held to grand jury. Sold $1,300 stolen brass for $23.

R. Stewell, 2121 Waveland av., and W. Reichel, 1930 Otto st., motorcyclists, hit by auto. Severely injured.

Miss Ada Conway paraded through Revere House, N. Clark st., in nightie.

Guests frightened. Claimed she played ghost. Sent to Bridewell for drug cure.

Albert Crosst, 2209 Winona av., hit father when he threatened mother. Judge refused warrant for arrest.

Christ Stevens claims he killed Pelorians for carrying letters between wife and affinity.

Eight movies slashed by censors. Boxing scene and nude statue objected to.

Arthur Dion, 1249 Hastings st., given 60 days in Bridewell for taking purse from woman at church.

AN EXCRUCIATING BLUNDER

First Dead Beat—That conductor put us off the train because we didn't have tickets, but the joke's on him.

Second Dead Beat—But he put us off at the first stop.

First Dead Beat—I know he did—but look how far it is from where we started!

PERSON WITNESS FOUND?

Jack Taylor, missing chief witness for Carl E. Person, labor editor under indictment for killing Tony Musser, at Clinton, Ill., is working as a railroad section foreman at Davenport, Ia., according to Mrs. Taylor, who is living in Bloomington, Ill. She said today she had received a letter from him yesterday dated from Davenport.

COP SHOOTS COP

Following a quarrel with Policeman James Boyle at 12th street and Crawford avenue, Policeman John Maley was shot and dangerously wounded. Boyle was taken to the Billmore street station, where he refused to talk of the shooting. The victim was taken to the County Hospital. Both were assigned to the Fillmore street station.