

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

100 Chicago "ad" men at Toronto "ad" convention.

Henry Paschen, 1226 N. Maplewood av., robbed $40. Wounded in arm. Empty gun found.

121 indictments returned against John E. Hartenblower, president of defunct Tonica Exchange Bank, by Ottawa, Ill., grand jury.

Lillian Stalmehowska, 5, 1827 S. Ashland st., hit by motorcycle. Bruised.

Edw. Inskip's saloon, 2001 Hastings st., robbed. $35.

John W. Worthington, bankrupt private banker, released on $5,000 bond.

John H. Ortman held in Pittsburgh on bigamy charge. Awaiting extradition.

Jack Fanuculli, runaway, Washington, found working as lifesaver at Wilson av. beach.

5,000 orphans and old folks to have picnic July 29. 400 autos will be used.

Edw. O'Hearn, 12, 600 Leavitt st., missing.

Albert McMahon, 1224 Argyle st., leaned against electric light pole. Severely burned.

John O'Rourke, 1078 W. Randolph st., dead. Fell down building shaft June 19.

Miss Frances Alpetar, Evanston, robbed by Servian woman. Lost $5.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, biennial head, ill. Nervous collapse.

Judge Sabbath to sit on three benches. W. Chicago av., 9 o'clock; E. Chicago av., 10:20, and Sheffield av. court at 2 p. m.

Mary Mullen, 4, 1116 S. Fairfield av., fell from porch. Dead.

Miss Lura Thomas, 35, school-teacher, married Otis M. Smith, 83.

141 degrees given at Loyola University.

Benj. Levin, Benj. Strauss and Chas. Greve, indicted in Jacksonville for using mails to defraud, will fight extradition.

John A. Metz and Dr. Stephen R. Pietrowicz appointed on school board by mayor.

Utilities Commission may appraise Chicago and West Towns Railroad. Brookfield and Lagrange citizens oppose rate increase.

Big civic festival to be held in fall. Mammoth pageant of Chicago's history planned.

New York financiers took "L" ride. Will take $12,500,000 Northwestern "L" bonds.

Mrs. M. Whinney, 10610 S. Seeley av., hit and robbed by negro. Lost $40.

Chicago railroads prepared for revised conditions. Adjustments being made in line with interstate commerce commission ruling.

Judge Landis discharged 100 bankrupts.

Henry Womquist, 1239 N. LaSalle st., saw wife with man. Gave him beating. Wife interfered. Got same.

4,400 Sunday school delegates here. International Ass'n would add 1,000,000 attendance a year.

John Pine, 16, plead guilty to stealing meat from interstate shipment. Case continued.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hartwick and Arthur Hartwick plead guilty to charge of counterfeiting.

202 S. Clark st. raided. Gambling. 5 arrested. J. Smith booked as keeper.

John W. Worthington, defunct private banker, plead not guilty to using mails to defraud.

Mlle. Adgie Costello claims love cost fiance's death. Believe lions were jealous.

Oldest case in court settled. Ownership of property sold March 27, 1861, settled by Circuit Court yesterday.

Members of Ass'n of Commerce touring downstate towns. Will visit 25 cities.

John H. Dretzeler failed to come home nights. Sick friend. Wife re-