OFFERS BABY AS FINE

A one-cent fine and one hour in jail was the penalty put on Mrs. Laura Dombrowski, 1150 West Chicago avenue, by Judge Sabath. Accused as a silk thief, she explained the magnetic stuff stuck to her own silk shawl as she passed out of the place of a dressmaker neighbor.

The court threatened to send her to jail for a year. "I have no money but I'll give my baby to the woman who thinks I meant to steal silk from her," she said. "I've got enough children already," was the answer of Mrs. Karolina Postowa, 736 Temple court, the complainant.

T. R. STARTS POLITICING

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 25.—Col. Roosevelt started in today being politician and not a geographer. He issued blistering statement attacking Pres. Wilson and administration for "belated payment of blackmail" to Columbia proposed in pending treaty.
