

Neil added. "It attacks those who are weak from overwork, from hunger, from too much food and drink and from greed and from constant seeking of power for selfish reasons."

"In after life," replied Ford, "greedy men suffer from remorse and with their vitality weakened they are in a position to have cancer. They sometimes kill themselves."

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Anderson's drug store, 2222 N. Western av., entered. Mrs. Anderson went to hubby's aid. Robbers fled.

$6,000 worth of loot recovered in raid on apartment at 4655 Kenmore av. Daniel Murphy held.

"Red hair here to stay," says Prof. Tower, University of Chicago. "Blondes not disappearing."

Miss Cecelia M. Kelly, 2314 N. California av., wed to B. J. Hughes, wealthy Arizona ranch owner.

Fire limits may be extended. Council sub-committee favors prohibition of frame construction in new territory.

Commissioner Daniel J. Harris refused to testify before McCormick's Oak Forest committee. Believes matter should be submitted to commissioners.

Auto belonging to Dr. J. P. Wilson, 515 E. 44th st., stolen by 12-year-old. Machine wrecked. Boy fled.

Miss Edith Leaming, 7918 Drexel av., hit by auto. Lost three teeth.

Wm. Viikinhart, 3019 Lloyd av., hit by auto. Severely bruised.

William F. Stine, head of defunct United Police Society, found guilty of embezzlement. May get 5 of 10 years.

Postal authorities seeking writers of letters to James C. Groendyke. Letters charge he is involved in scandal in Michigan penitentiary.

John Diener, Halfway, fined $100 and 30 days in jail. Robert Sloan, bartender, fined $100. Sold liquor to minors.

$1,000 lost in first 4 months' business of First State Industrial Wage Loan Society. Will continue fight on loan sharks.

Frank Uhler, 23, 2005 W. 19th st., shot self June 21. Dead.

J. B. Hogarth wants 100,000 from officers of Chicago Railway Co. and Division 241 of street railway employes' union. Claims conspiracy caused loss of job.

Mrs. Maria Marth, 1711 Cleveland av., applied for mother's pension. Has $1,500. May be imprisoned.

Alumni of Crane Technical High School want new building. Claim present school is too small.

J. B. and T. Drake sued for $30,000 by Eugene Bournique. Alleges commission is due on $1,200,000 realty sale.

Trouble getting Petras jury. Only 5 out of 180 veniremen tentatively accepted.

Schultz claims to have no recollection of murdering Mrs. Healy. Brother testified he escaped from asylum.

Chicago Psychopathic Hospital opens today. Cost $470,000 and accommodates 300 patients.

22 members of police department transferred. Lieut. McCaulen and Lieuts. Keats changes places.

Volunteers entertained 12,000 children at Washington Park.

Mrs. Barbara Glaum, 1538 N. Halsted st., sold good luck charms. Arrested on swindling charge. Charm worked. Dismissed.

Ordinance for periodic examination of gas meters recommended by committee. President of gas company opposed it.

Mrs. Lydia J. Hopkins ordered to court. Must answer contempt charge for failing to appear in bond for forfeiture.

1133 S. State st. leased for post-office for 10 years.

Edw. E. Gross, 713 W. 47th st., father of 13, wants divorce. Claims