CLAFIN SUBSIDIARIES WILL CONTINUE BUSINESS?

New York, June 26.—Believed most of the subsidiary companies involved in the $34,000,000 difficulties of H. B. Clafin Co. will continue business without more than temporary hitch.

While officials of the Clafin Co. said it was too soon to be sure, they intimated that the 40,000 employes of the Clafin stores throughout the country would in all probability be out of work only a few days, as they expect the reorganization work to be carried on speedily.

GET WOMEN WITH DOPE

Detectives raided a house at 1923 Federal street in the old redlight district yesterday and arrested two women, on which were found 24 bottles, each containing cocaine.

It is said that these women have been peddling cocaine around the levee district for years. They pose as apple vendors.

HEALTH COMMITTEE MEETING

Dr. Mark Goldstein, specialist in woman's diseases, advocated compulsory examination and certification of prostitutes.

He said 60 per cent of women that come to free dispensaries are infected with disease.

Dr. Clara Seppel opposed Goldstein's examination idea and said it was a failure in Europe. Believes in teaching of sex hygiene.

Mrs. William Monroe, Mental Hygiene Society, spoke for the need of better recreation for factory and department store girls.

Rev. Philip W. Yarrow, Young People's Civic League, blamed alcohol for vice.

THE BARBER SHOP STRIKE

Owners of 100 barber shops on West Side will meet this afternoon to consider the demands of union barbers for shorter hours. The employers' organization will probably agree to closing shops at 1 o'clock Sundays and 8:30 week days. The union wants the shops closed at 10 Saturdays. The employers want to keep open until 11.
