

N.Y. Theatrical Letter

by Norman

Mabel and Edith Taliaferro.

New York, N. Y., June 27.—Hot weather has darkened the auditoriums of all save the revue, vaudeville and movie houses, but underneath the surface of theatrical activity there is a stir of preparation for the fall productions.

One of the earliest announcements to come from the Longacre Square hive of industry is that the Taliaferro sisters, Mabel and Edith, will again be co-stars during the coming season, and that a French comedy which has been bought for their use by Klaw &