

WEALTHY WIDOW AND MAN POLICE CLAIM SHE KILLED

Mrs. H. M.
Angel

W. R. Ballou

Mrs. Helen M. Angel, the wealthy widow of Stamford, Conn., outside whose apartment City Chamberlain Waldo R. Ballou was found dead with his head crushed in, is suffering a nervous collapse as the result of her arrest, accused with the crime, and was released from jail pending trial. The police have found an 8-pound flatiron with what others believe are blood spots on it and are trying to connect this with the crime.

—DEDICATE TABLET

A memorial tablet for Louis Callan, president of the Clothing Cutters' Local No. 61, who died five years ago, will be dedicated Sunday after 2 p. m. at B'Nai Abram Cemetery
