WHITE SLAVE DRIVER WILL SPEND NEXT SIX YEARS IN THE PEN

Young Girl Finally Revolts and Her Story Lands Her White, Soft-Handed Master In the Hands of the Law—She's a Wreck.

This isn't a nice story.

It is about a broken, racked member of the oldest profession in the world and her man, who sold her night after night, and lived well on the money.

So it can't be a very nice story.

One year ago Anna Martin was working in a kitchen in St. Louis. There was little in her life but work. And she wanted pleasure. She wanted a life such as other girls had.

And then came Frank Miller. He wasn't a man, but the type that prowls among the unfortunate, knowing, through some uncanny instinct, when their power of resistance is the weakest.

He opened the gates of a new world to Anna Miller. He told her of other cities, and he offered to take her with him.

The girl did not know that she was to pay the bills.

She saw only a new life before her, and a release from drudgery.
