

C. Rhodus, Chas. R. Young or Rev. R. Keene Ryan to fill vacancy on school board handed mayor.

Suit to set aside will of Dr. Benedicta Lager brought. Jury to decide if woman was sane when she left one-third of $40,000 estate to mission.

Judge Landis impounded assignment of wages and papers held by Max Weber, loan agent, against Edw. Fleming, city fireman.

$250,000 estate left by Wm. A. Renick, lumber dealer.

50 diners at Rector's, 83 W. Monroe st., routed by fire.

Fire partly destroyed building 3417 Greenshaw st. Fire attorney investigating.

C. Alexander, 2026 Churchill st., held to grand jury for taking $201 securities belonging to father's estate.

Miss May Allen, 1251 N. Dearborn st., found unconscious in gas-filled room. Love affair.

James McGinnis, 1034 Orleans st., accidentally shot self while cleaning revolver.

C. R. Gleason, agent for 8 W. 22d st., ordered to oust tenants. Place raided by morals squad.

Att'y Louis Ehle, 1360 E. 49th st., indicted on charges of forgery and embezzlement.

Geo. J. Williams wants $50,000 damages from Ackley Bros. Claims they sold him apartment house under false pretenses.

Man believed to be S. B. Chickerling killed by C., R. I. & P. train at Blue Island.

Western roads want rate increase. Ask 10 per cent general advance for all roads west of the Mississippi.

State food commissioner ordered restaurants to place rail around food on counter. Patrons must keep hands off food.

Residents in Woodlawn and Hyde Park have organized burglar patrol. "Pajama brigade" to stop robberies.

Frank Willard, 1254 N. Kedzie av., suicided. Gun.

Att'y Horace S. Curvey, 1263 N. Thorndale av., arrested. Alleged to have accepted $100 bribe to "fix" lawsuit.

Pietro Mortano fined $200 and costs. Gun toting.

200 scantily clad guests routed by fire at Washington Hotel, 92d st. and Commercial av. Loss $2,000.

Howard W. Hayes granted divorce from Lydia C. Hayes. Wife wouldn't go to Laporte, Ind.

Chas. C. Witmer drove hydro-aeroplane from Lincoln Park to Kenosha. 51 miles in 40 minutes.

Chief Gleason issued order that policemen must have permit to purchase gun.

—o—o— STRIKE NEEDLESS?

It is rumored that several teamsters admitted to Ass't District Attorney Hopkins yesterday that the strike called by Business Agents Norris and Haley against the McLaughlin yards was needless.

The trust press is entirely muzzling the fact that the excavators' union is not a member of the Chicago Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor.

—o—o— SIDETRACK CLASH

Belfast, Ireland, July 2.—Armed break of Ulster volunteers parading street allayed when commissioner of police issued orders to make no arrests of those carrying arms. This attitude by the authorities is expected to postpone a clash with unionist forces who, it is said, have orders from their officers to resist with bullets any attempts to disarm them.

—o—o— TO FIGHT BIG ASSESSMENT

Mrs. Mollie Neuberger, owner of the Boston Store, is going to fight the assessment of $139,500 against her. The assessment is on a mortgage of $1,900,000 left by the late Levi Z. Leiter estate. Mrs. Neuberger is the only trustee left in the city. Most of the Lake Shore drive residents were newly assessed yesterday.