

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Duluth, Minn.—Steamer American, bearing body of Capt. W. A. McKay, Hamburg, N. Y., docked today. He died at 4 a. m.

Denver.—Fourteen injured, one fatally, when 60-foot cornice in downtown section fell 30 feet to sidewalk in crowd watching Elks' festivities.

Macomb, Ill.—Crooked creek, which supplies city with water, dry. Several factories compelled to close, and water famine imminent.

Sulphur, Okla.—Frederick K. Hamilton, Oakland, Cal., arrested, charged with bigamy. Two women in Oakland claim him as husband. Bride of a month, formerly Mrs. Johnny Mae Dunbar, accompanies him.

Portland, Me.—Torpedo boat Rogers seriously damaged in collision with steamer Gov. Dingley.

Wimbledon, Eng.—England defeated France in final singles match of preliminary play for Davis international cup. This eliminates France.

Buffalo.—Saloon of Matteo Orlando, on second floor of three-story brick building, wrecked by bomb explosion. Police blame black hand. Orlando had received threatening letters.

Kansas City, Mo.—Price of beef steers climbing. $10 steers predicted before close of market.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Frankfort-Toledo express derailed. No one badly hurt.

Camden, N. J.—Mrs. L. F. Haines, 84, totally blind for 10 years, regained full sight during electrical storm. Was sitting at window when struck unconscious. Able to read when revived.

St. Louis, Mo.—Miss Josephine Atchison, daughter of minister at Mount Vernon, Ill., found wandering on streets clad in kimono and carrying revolver, Bible and doll; suffering from heat prostration.

Lansing, Mich.—Gov. W. N. Ferris announced he will be candidate for re-election on Democratic ticket.

St. Louis, Mo.—Daniel O'Leary wanted to be toreador. Gave Pat McCarthy $35 to teach him how to kill a bull. Pat ducked with Dan's $35.

LaPorte, Ind.—Well-dressed man found wandering about railroad tracks. Papers in pocket indicate he is wealthy cattleman. Believed victim of heat.

Edwardsville, Ill.—Neil Barnett, Meredosia, Ill., accidentally electrocuted.

Springfield, Ill.—Gov. E. F. Dunne removed his private office from state house to cyclone cellar in basement of governor's mansion. Cooler.

Racine, Wis.—Frank Bauman, 24, teamster, fell under wheels of car. Left leg gone.

New York.—Mrs. Dennis Sullivan, rising from sick bed sprained her wrist; Dennis, Jr., 14, fell out of cherry tree and broke leg; Harry, 6, hit by street car, suffering broken shoulder and contusions of head; Dennis, Sr., cop, tore the trousers of his new uniform, all on July 13.

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Carl Williams placed $14,000 worth of bonds in her stocking bank. Lost them between Cape May, N. J., and here.

Schenectady, N. Y.—Man suspected of being slayer of young woman whose torso, head and one arm were found in Mohawk river, may be arrested today.

Pittsburgh.—Because James Carr had rubber-soled shoes, lightning couldn't find circuit after striking his celluloid collar. Singed his whiskers.

Cleveland.—Ministers have declared war on aquatic, tango, grapevine and one step now the rage on Lake Erie bathing beaches.

Prentice, Wis.—Henry Reidel, working to exhume body of Axel Wiken, buried 60 feet below surface when wall caved in. Fear he is dead.

Cleveland.—Harry Nichols, 10, dying from blow dealt by burglar.

Cleveland.—Fire destroyed plant of National Bedding Co. and partially