

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Berlin.—Karl Geigant, army aviator, died from injuries received when plane fell Tuesday.

Nebraska City, Neb.—Wind, rain and hail storm did heavy damage to crops near here.

Omaha, Neb.—Fred M. Schroeder, his brother Peter, dead and William Rapp dying; bullet wounds. No explanation given of shooting.

Traverse City, Mich.—One fireman seriously injured and two slightly burned in livery stable fire; loss $10,000.

New York.—George R. Chapin on trial for bigamy; mother says he has had seven wives; just returned from honeymoon with last bride. Wife No. 6 says he is "homeliest man who ever lived."

New Orleans.—Nelms sisters were kidnaped and are being held prisoners near Houston, Tex., according to Atlanta policeman.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Mrs. Gertrude Rogers, 23, Terre Haute, found unconscious and bleeding between two houses. Claims she was thrown out of auto by two men. Two suspects held.

Keokuk, Ia. — Charles Sexton drowned while bathing in Mississippi.

Detroit, Mich. — Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, 20, found unconscious on road in outskirts of city. Says she was kidnaped and attacked by two men in auto.

Galesburg, Ill.—H. F. Anderson, gen'l sup't M. & T. R. R., traveled from Dallas, Tex., to make one-day visit to sister here.

Houston, Tex.—Geo. Sweeney, wealthy sporting man, dead after duel with W. A. Bridges, following quarrel over cards.

Washington.—Thos. D. Jones, candidate for federal reserve board, sent telegram to Senate declaring he had no objection to publication of his testimony before committee.

Aitha, Mich.—7 miners killed in Balkan mine. Flood

Madison, Wis.—1 man killed and 2 injured when traction engine plunged 8 feet through floor of Allen Creek bridge.

Madison, Wis.—6 minor children of Mrs. Libra Cappello, killed in elevator in Wells Bldg., awarded $1,500 by industrial commission.

Redding, Cal.—18th eruption of Mount Lassen, American volcano.

Cleveland.—Declared that distribution of Argentine beef is controlled by four big packing houses in this country.

New York.—Retail prices of meat raised 1 to 3 cents a pound.

Jersey City, N. J.—Judge ruled wife cannot wages for housework. Mrs. H. W. Wendt sued husband for $5,692 back wages.

Paris.—In presentation of "Othello," Moor suddenly turned white. Averted panic by announcing heat melted his black paint.

Washington.—Trio of Kansas City merchants spent hour with president telling him that unusual crops spell period of exceptional prosperity.

Buenos Ayres.—German steamship Mendoza, which went ashore July 11, abandoned as total wreck. Passengers saved.

Los Angeles.—Following quarrel over mining property, Robt. E. Lomax, wealthy jeweler, shot and killed A. E. Shaw.

Biloxi, Miss.—Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis and her sister Beatrice Nelms, missing from Atlanta, Ga., reported found at Petit Is Bois Island.

New York.—Meeting of board of directors of New Haven Road today to determine whether road will meet in full requirements laid down by dep't of justice or stand suit.

New York.—15 firemen overcome fighting fire that destroyed 3 yachts and did $200,000 damage in yards of N. Y. Yacht Launch and Engine Co.

Wm. Hoops, millionaire, refused to help-insane son who married twice.