

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mistaken for robber, Policeman Wm. Maher, W. 13th st. station, shot through palm. Jacob Shapiro arrested.

Postmen's union may join A. F. of L.

"Baby" Meggleson, orphan, reported scalded to death in Michael Reese Hospital. Coroner investigating.

Mrs. Paula Behrens, 2002 N. Halsted st., broke neck in bathtub. Dead.

Miss Julia DeLugia suing for old position as janitress of County Hospital.

Seven Chicago women missing from homes.

Thos. Agur, 5706 Indiana av., attempted suicide in Jackson Park. Saved by life guard.

Eight had narrow escape when launch hit steamer "Roosevelt" in river.

Frank Bruntto held up in his butcher shop at 861 N. Clark st. by two. Get $10.

Theodore Johnson, 3614 Bosworth av., cut throat before wife and child. Turned gas on when they fled. May live.

Stanley Petofski, 1356 Augusta st., fined $50 and costs for sleeping at switch and delaying a train 10 minutes.

Chief Gleason to stop amusement park gambling.

Paul Troubetzkoy, Russian prince, in Chicago. Mission secret.

"Mike," dog actor in "Peg o' My Heart," lost.

Gamblers caught in raid at 710 Wells st., fined. W. H. Strickland, keeper, $5, five others $1 each.

Willy Stone, shot by Petar Laracy, 3011 Indiana av., dead. Quarreled over $2 board bill.

Joe Graff, tailor, charged with operating confidence game, released. Paid back $200 to Margaret Pollischek.

Owen Thompson, restaurant proprietor at 4804 Broadway av., fined $5. Hit Harry De Young, 1418 Balmoral av., on head with roll.

Mrs. Marie Staub found by police in home at 602 Irving Park blvd., with cut on head. Struck by beggar.

John Houlihan, South Chicago, sentenced to 30 days in Bridewell. Judge Ryan released him after 20 minutes. Psychological sentence.

Woman wearing an X-ray skirt nearly mobbed at the Chicago Beach. Crowd of men too interested.

Struck by auto, Mrs. Mary Sullivan, 432 Aberdeen st., threw baby into crowd. Man caught baby. Mother injured. Driver arrested.

Henry Goldberg, 1344 Newberry av., hurt when auto hit bicycle.

Mrs. S. M. Gladstone, 9235 Commercial av., dropped baby when struck by auto. Both uninjured.

Auto of Rev. D. F. McGuire, Church of Visitation, stolen.

Hired girl in home of J. T. Brown, Morgan Park, frightened burglar by talking to self in different tones.

Alvin Brooks brought from Mount Clemens, Mich., by police. Wife abandonment and wire-tapping charges.

United States custom officials to hold unclaimed merchandise sales.

Friends banqueted new Battalion Chief Frank Oswald of 27th battalion.

Miss Esther Zisbrat, 2626 Iowa st., fined $5 and costs for rocking boat in Jackson Park.

Two escaped convicts from Joliet supposed hiding in Brighton Park.

Mrs. F. L. Brown, South Chicago, fined $20 and costs for operating drug store without license.

J. J. Claffy, 538 W. 45th st., thrown by runaway horse. Arm broken.

C. R. Kennedy, 5203 Millard av., arrested for shooting of Emmet Sout, 27 W. 18th st., last night.

Day's profits of Suffrage Shop were $6,000. Raising $50,000.

Miss Anne Fennell, 901 Leland av., kicked in head while swimming. Rescued by beach guard.

Ald. Krause arrested John Laine, 165 W. Grand av., accused of mis-