

ONE OF SERVIA'S FAMOUS FIGHTING WOMEN

Ready With Her Rifle.

IT SWEARS OFF

"I," said the temperance man, "strongly object to the custom of christening ships with champagne."

"I don't," replied the other man. "I think there's a temperance lesson in it."

"How can that be?"

"Well, immediately after the first bottle of wine the ship takes to water, and sticks to it ever after."

Corks may be made airtight and watertight by keeping them immersed in oil for five minutes.

REQUISITION FOR SHOEMAKER

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—Gov. Dunne issued requisition for the return to Illinois of R. M. Shoemaker, formerly chief special agent for the Western Union Telegraph Co., now held in San Francisco and indicted on charges of conspiracy and larceny of papers belonging to the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America. The charges grew out of Shoemaker's activity in behalf of the Western Union during its recent war on the telegraphers' union.

"SNAKE" STILL ON THE JOB

The wagon which has been doing duty in the Knab restaurant made its usual rounds yesterday, picked up thirteen striking waitresses on picket duty and carried them to the South Clark street station. They were booked on charges of obstructing the sidewalk and delaying traffic.

Seventeen girls arrested Monday were arraigned before Municipal Judge Williams yesterday. They took jury trials, which were set for August 19 before Municipal Judge Jarecki.

CRANE FOR RESERVE BOARD?

Charles R. Crane may have a place on the federal reserve board. This is the talk that blazed around Chicago following the announcement that Crane was going to Washington to confer with President Wilson. It is surmised that Wilson will offer him the place at first offered to Thomas D. Jones.

FEMININE FACTS

Sibyl Wilbur, a newspaper woman whose biography of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy brought her literary fame, is completing a new book dealing with the problems of the "new woman."

Prussia now has a woman master watchmaker, Miss Paula Ehlert, who passed the difficult examination before the Chamber of Trade in Danzig with high honors. Miss Ehlert is the first woman admitted to the watchmaker's profession, and her career is being watched with great interest.
