

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Dallas, Tex.—Woman and little girl suspected of being Julia Krususk, nurse and the daughter of Harry H. Gerhard, St. Louis, taken off M., K. & T. train by police. Nurse supposed to have abducted child.

Niles, Mich.—State inspectors announced that 166 herds of infected livestock have been discovered in Berrien and Cass counties.

Petoskey, Mich.—Suspension of nearly every member of senior class of Petoskey High School followed appearance in assembly room of boys wearing "middy" blouses and girls in shirts, vests, collars and ties.

Granite City, Ill.—J. B. Travis, stockman of Shipman, Ill., killed, V. R. Leonard, Des Moines, Ia., injured. Chicago & Alton passenger train struck rear end of stock train.

Springfield.—Charles E. Church, formerly parole officer Joliet prison, suicided. Despondent.

Newton, Ia.—Pres. Lou Sherman, Sully, Ia., bank, arrested at Calxico, Cal. Charged with fraudulent banking.

Fresport, Ill.—Fred Dahmes, Monroe, Wis., killed; J. J. Schneider of W. F. Truckenbrod, Monroe, seriously injured. Auto turned turtle.

Liberty Center, O.—Engineer W. A. Brumfield and Fireman W. R. Ruby, Toledo, badly injured. Wabash freight train wrecked.

Washington.—Geo. B. Roberts, director of mint, resigned. Will enter private business.

New York.—Cunard Line offices have received no word of giant liner Lusitania, due to dock early today from Liverpool. No anxiety felt as yet.

Rome.—Francesco Tomassetti, son of Italy's most famous archeologist, and Mrs. F. Marion Crawford, widow of noted author, married.

Van Wert, O.—E. R. Kretiz, 30, agent for Lozier Auto Co., killed, and Edw. Zimmerman injured when their auto side-swiped smaller machine.

Ballinger, Tex.—Negro cotton pickers have been ordered by "white-cappers" to leave Runnels county. Negro camps shot up. Cotton growers who imported the colored hands declare they shall remain. Trouble feared.

Washington.—Part of channel and Thames river has been closed to shipping presumably because of mines, according to dispatch from Ambassador Page.

Washington.—In effort to relieve cotton situation postoffice dept. awarded contract amounting to more than $106,000 for string and twine made of cotton instead of jute.

Detroit.—Alderman Thos. E. Glinnan declared not guilty of accepting $1,000 bribe for his vote.

North Tonawanda, N. Y.—Third lumber yard fire of incendiary origin within 17 hours discovered late yesterday.

Washington.—Prisoners' bureau, by means of which information of sick and wounded prisoners of all countries is transmitted to their families, organized by International Red Cross committee at Geneva.

Washington.—Belgium relief fund now $55,000.

Ardmore, Okla.—Cotton growers alarmed over increasing activities of night riders' organization. 15 arrested in Love county.

New York.—32,000-ton battleship California will be built at Brooklyn navy yard, according to announcement made by Commandant Nathaniel Usher.

Philadelphia.—Characterizing U. S. steel corporation as "colossus bestriding commerce," Special U. S. Att'y J. N. Dickinson completed plea before Circuit Court of Appeals that organization be dissolved under Sherman anti-trust law.

Charlestown, W. Va.—State officials fear riot on election day as result of killing of negro taken to Logan courthouse for registration.