

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

"Roughneck Day" eliminated from calendar of Lyon's high school in La Grange. 40 suspended last year. Soccer football game and pie-eating contests this afternoon.

H. H. Harvey, fish peddler, 5429 Roberts av., arrested. No license.

Robert Kellogg, Springfield, Mass., matched pennies with John Buchanan and Fred Thomas on lake front. Won $500 and started to run. All pinched.

Mrs. Anton Miscihas, 1916 W. 22d st., defended her husband with a revolver yesterday when 4 cops, 2 "dicks" and a railroad policeman attempted to arrest him on freight-stealing charge. Both arrested.

"Scientific window washing and scrubbing" taught in new janitors' school which opened up last night at Y. M. C. A.

B. M. Shaffner, lawyer, took 53 suits of clothing as $300 payment on $500 fee in bankruptcy case. Ordered by Judge Landis to reimburse price of suits to creditors. $300 fixed as reasonable price.

Mrs. Z. G. Dunn dropped the divorce case against her husband charging cruelty. Reconciliation effected.

Ben Centrachio, formerly saloon-keeper, 10069 Hoxie av., fined 1 cent with no costs by judge for assault on revenue agent year ago.

Clara Church and Patience Glenn escaped from Dunning last night. Police asked to look for them.

Ernest Gatewood, negro watchman of DeLuxe Theater, when questioned by police yesterday said that Mrs. Eva Steinhaus, 4857 Kenwood av., had given him jewels to keep. Denied he had robbed her or resisted arrest.

Walter Trebick, motorman, 1105 Wellington av., had good time in saloon. Friends pinned old star on coat and gave him revolver. Fired it on wsv home. Probationed 6 months by judge.

Socialist meetings tonight: 8th ward, Gillestal school; 8th ward, Odd-fellows hall, 79th and S. Shore av.; 8th ward, Thorp school; 15th ward, Schley school; 23d ward, Lincoln Turner hall, Diversey and Sheffield av.; 26th ward, Coooley school; 31st ward, Copernicus school; Lyons, Ill., Village Hall; Brookfield, Ill., Village Hall, and LaGrange, Ill., K. of P. Hall.

"Prof." Raphael De Leica, 1232 Larrabee st., fined $50 on complaint of wife. No money.

E. Johnson, grocer, 1303 W. Huron st., held up by three men. $2.

Marie Muldring, 19, arrested Tuesday after she had borrowed friend's dress to look good at party, sent to House of Good Shepherd 30 days when identified by a second victim.

Abel Friedman, 1510 Edgmont av., arrested on warrant charging "con game" sworn out by Daniel Fine, 1409 N. Hoyne av. Says Friedman bought $300 worth of goods with bad check.

Mrs. Fred Ruling, 4625 Kenmore av., reported to police that Mrs. Mabe Strubenrauch, her domestic, had disappeared. Also has $400 worth of jewelry and clothing.

Louis Sieburtz, 920 S. Ashland av., found dead. Gas. Police probing.

Frank Ruseck, painter, 1711 S. Laffin st., badly burned. Can of gasoline exploded.

Joseph Motelovitz, 508 W. 45th st., robbed of $70 watch and $16 in cash by 3 men in alley near Blue Island av. and Taylor st. last night.

Mrs. Annie Hunc, 76, found asphyxiated in rooms at 2128 Hastings st. Wind blew out gas.

Samuel Ketcham, indicted by grand jury as accessory in murder of Joseph Barry, fined in Desplaines st. court for carrying gun.

65 unemployed men on coroner's juries yesterday.

Miss Nellie Viola Richards, formerly of 4151 Lake Park av., suing Henry Welz Fry, wealthy resident of