

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Anton Horn, 3048 Addison, tried suicide Sunday. Dead. Ill health cause.

Progressive National Committee to meet in Chicago next Wednesday without Col. Roosevelt.

Widening of 12th st. near. Assessment filed in Superior Court. Property owners and city to divide cost.

Policemen in autos latest way to fight auto bandits. Three squads out last night.

Bids for construction of Clarendon av. bathing beach costing $150,000 to be asked soon.

Helen Prominski, attache of Domestic Court, married to William Duffy, 724 W. 19th pl.

Michael Hayes, 71, 3741 Cottage Grove av., fined $200. Accosted Mrs. Jessie Thomas, 3319 Forest av.

Mrs. Myrtle Donnelly sued for board for cats by Mrs. Margaret Newman of Aurora. Settled case for $35.

New social center at St. Sylvester's parish, Richmond st. and Palmer Square, to be opened soon.

Helen Deneen and Barry Cantwell of Oak Park got license in secret for wedding. Newspapers foll elopers.

Mrs. Celia Corcoran, 753 E. 43d, arrested for beating husband. Case continued.

Battalion Chief Heany and fireman hurt when they smashed auto trying to prevent hitting boy in street. Hospital.

Louis Jensen, 1214 N. Washtenaw av., got $100 fine for beating 2-year-old baby with broom. To bridewell.

Jas. J. West, broker, 5006 Blackstone av., under indictment for misuse of funds of National Bank of Johnston, Ill., to surrender today.

Dr. Rob't Tibbals of Detroit, pinched on suspicion when he paid girl's fare on way to Chicago, freed. Charity.

Tony Richley, 3724 Lake Park av., arrested for receiving stolen property and beating sister. Refused to talk. Case continued.

Thomas Vaughn, engineer of Holmes school, on trial before school board for drinking on duty.

"Children should read Shaw before old authors," declared Prof. C. E. Ayers of State Normal School of Missouri.

Ciro Locasia, 820 Cambridge av., to grand jury for killing mother-in-law, Frances Barcia.

Burglar in home of Flora Berger, 2716 Hirsch blvd., got only talcum powder and perfume. Frightened away.

Julius Slade, 685 Milwaukee av., convicted on charge made by niece, Sophie Hollini. Asked new trial.

Mrs. Madge Rothschild, 1032 George, and Mrs. P. W. Cooper, 2446 Wilson av., arrested for impersonating policewomen. Got drinks from saloon was charged.

Jerome Smrz, 23, former postmaster of Argo, who confessed embezzling $4,650 from postoffice funds, says he has paid back money.

Clara Kellogg, stenographer, risked life to get valuable papers out of fire in factory of P. M. Aiken, Camp Logan. Loss $50,000.

"Chicago needs larger custom house."—Sec'y of Treasury McAdoo.

Sportsman's club holding weekly show at clubrooms. About 250 Western Union boys guests at doings Friday.

New evidence in death of Nicholas Burns, found dead on Sheridan rd., shows he was in auto with two men and woman. Died in machine, detectives say.

Cops called to handle crowd of 10,000 in collector's office. Eager to pay war tax.

Service Club light opera in Congress ballroom netted $4,000 last night. Goes to charity.

Wm. McCoy, 68, "dean of Chicago hotel men," dead at home, 5640 South Park av.

About 100 kids got Thanksgiving dinner at Progressive club, 19 W.